From the Pastor’s Desk

I’d like to take this opportunity to thank you. I want to thank all of you who have continued to support Assumption and St. Mary’s Parishes with your time, mass attendance, volunteerism, and financial support. There are many parishioners, too numerous to mention, who have done many things around here to sustain parish life. These last 5 years have not been an easy time. Despite all of this, we have together overcome many obstacles to keep the faith. Each of you has played a role in that effort, large or small.

Betsy Stover and Elaine Fike are to be thanked. They have been great secretaries for both parishes. Elaine and Mary Carlson also cooked for me over these years. Elaine cleaned the rectory. Mary Carlson has to be thanked for directing communications for us these past 5 years. She is integral in helping to publish the bulletin, along with Elaine and Betsy. Mary designed and managed our parish website, parish app, and Facebook page. Barb Murray runs a very successful Bingo on Sunday evenings, which is a great help to St. Mary’s parish budget. Barb, along with our catechists, have done a tremendous amount of work in faith formation and sacramental preparation for our young people.

Joe McCluskey has done a great job maintaining the St. Mary’s Parish property. He always communicates well and fixes things promptly. Bob Thompson and Rick Fike are to be thanked for maintaining Assumption Parish property during these years. I thank our custodians, Cheryl Hannah at St. Mary’s, and Sy Sitosky at Assumption. They help keep our facilities clean, healthy, and welcoming. While they are not staff, but clergy, I thank Deacon Steve Rowan and Deacon Dan Satterlee, along with their wives and families, for sharing ordained ministry with me in these years. It has been a blessing to work with them both.

The Altar Rosary Society Presidents, Josephine Nichols, and Jill Bowley, are to be thanked, as well as Grand Knight Mike Fye and the Knights of Columbus. Angela Deemer and the Catholic Daughters of the Americas are to be thanked. The various kitchen crews and other fundraising teams for both parishes are to be thanked. You have done hard work in support of your parish, of which you should rightly be very proud. I thank our Parish Finance Councils and our Joint Parish Council, and its President, Ron Hannah, who does a lot of things very well. Moose Rosanna, in his turn as Council President, did a great job. I thank all of our parish musicians for beautifying our liturgies and helping us to worship the Lord. I thank the Matuskys and Shadducks for tending the parish cemeteries, and all who run cemetery business. I think that both our cemeteries are very beautiful and dignified. I thank Luke and Kristin Renwick for running our Alpha Course.

While it is difficult to leave, and difficult for you all to enter a changing environment here, do know that God is with us when we stay faithful to Him. Take personal responsibility for your Catholic faith, take care of one another, and don’t let the little ones slip through the cracks.

Fr. Bill Barron
