The Parish Spotlight ~ Being Catholic in College ~ Autumn Carlson

College is a time for learning, and not just in class. For most students, the first challenge is getting used to being away from your parents and making your own decisions. Having been in a state college system myself, it's sometimes difficult to uphold your beliefs while being in classes that are pushing more liberal ways of thinking.

That's where the Newman Society became a place of refuge. The Newman Society was founded by Catholic laypeople in 1993, with the purpose to promote and defend Catholic education. In Lock Haven, the Newman house was an off-campus place Catholic students could go to study, as well as commune with fellow Catholics. Every Wednesday evening, students could come to the Newman house to eat dinner and have a bible study afterwards. One of the local Catholic churches has a student Mass at 5pm on Sundays, where students can actively participate as lectors, Eucharist ministers, and altar servers.

By having access to the Newman Society, it is easier for Catholic college students to continue to practice their faith with others who have the same beliefs. One of the friends I met through the Newman Society, Andrew (pictured on the cover) is currently studying at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia, having been encouraged by his family and friends to follow the call to the priesthood.

College is about growth, in knowledge, in social life, and in faith. While being a Catholic in college can be challenging, the Newman Society helps students to keep growing in their faith, and even encourages them to remain active in the church.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments

Code of Conduct: The Diocese of Erie is committed to protecting the children and youth who are entrusted to its care and to ensuring that those in ministry with our young people are in right relationship with the children/youth receiving services. To share in the ministry of Christ is a great privilege as well as a tremendous responsibility. The privilege is the joy of sharing in the mission of Jesus Himself. The responsibility is acting in a way that conforms to the attitude and actions of Christ. In this spirit, the diocese has issued a ministerial Code of Conduct, which can be accessed at <http://www.eriecd.org/pdf/codeofconduct.pdf>. The code is included in the diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children, which also includes mandates for creating safe environments. To read the policy, go to <http://www.eriecd.org/pdf/protectionpolicy.pdf> For more information, contact Mrs. Cindy Zemcik, at the diocesan offices at 814-824-1195.
