The Parish Spotlight ~ Vocation Awareness Week

Do you have a Vocation?

Every single person was created by God, and called by God, so we all have a calling. Some people are called to marriage, others to the single life, and some to serve God and his Church through vocation of religious consecration or priesthood.

How do we know what path God is calling us to follow? You have to hear God's voice! Hearing starts by listening. Spend time daily in personal prayer, 10 minutes a day could change your life!

Have you heard "you'd make a good Priest?" Often other people will notice a "priest's heart" in a young man and say to him, "Have you ever thought about being a priest? I think you'd make a good one." In fact, many men report that they grew tired of people making such comments—but that the encouragement eventually led them to seminary!

As Pope Benedict once said, people do not expect priests to be experts in anything but the spiritual life. This is true – the entire point of the priesthood is to help people to develop a deeper spiritual union with God. Thus, a good candidate for priesthood attends Mass, prays frequently, serves others, and strives to grow spiritually.

A priest brings Jesus to people and people to Jesus. For this reason, a man who wants to be a priest must have a deep concern for the people of God. He wants to help them grow in holiness; he wants to teach them the truths of the faith; he wants to minister to them during the trials of life. The vocation of priesthood is about leading others to heaven.

If you've thought about the possibility of priesthood, but don't yet have all these signs and qualities, don't despair! All people must strive for holiness. And future priests go through a long and intensive formation period, to help them grow in virtue and be effective in their ministry. Take time to talk to a Priest and get to see what the life of a priest is about by talking to someone who is living out their vocation.

If you're interested in priesthood, call and talk to the Erie Diocese Vocation Director, Fr. Michael Polinek, 814-824-1200. He can help you further discern your vocation. And remember—true happiness and peace depend on following God's perfect will for your life. If God wants you to be a priest, trust in His grace to lead you.
