Parish Spotlight— Independence Day

We have a very good and active Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) and military honor guard for funerals in our area. On this 4th of July, I want to take time to thank them for their continued patriotism and service. It seems to me that there are a lot of veterans in this area. Also, many men and women from the area continue to serve the nation in the armed forces. I thank them for their continued service. I never served in the military. But it was the service of these people that spared me from having to make that sacrifice. May God bless them and keep them in His care.

A few years ago, my parents bought a copy of the TV miniseries John Adams. It chronicled the life of Adams, the Second President of the United States, a man who was the main force behind our Declaration of Independence from Great Britain. One scene from the series struck me most: the scene depicting the vote for American Independence. The Founding Fathers were portrayed as very solemn, even grave. They knew that, as they voted to declare independence, they were voting on a death warrant for themselves. If they failed, the British would kill them all as traitors. But they persevered through to victory.

How are we honoring their sacrifice for our freedom of conscience? Are we living our lives in such a way as to deliver this hard-won freedom to our children, or are we letting our freedoms slowly slip away? Each time we allow the government, our fellow citizens, or another nation violate our God-given human dignity, we give away what the Founders sacrificed to give to us. May we cut through the haze of cluttered information and bitter division to find truth, and live in truth. That is what our American freedom is for. If we fail to do this, well, it will be taken from us. Let's not let that happen. God bless you, and a Happy 4th!
