The Parish Spotlight ~ Bethany Retreat Center and Y.P.W.C.

Bethany Retreat Center

We have a gem located practically in our own backyard, but you may not be aware of it. It's called the Bethany Retreat Center. This beautiful place is just the ticket for anyone wishing to reconnect or connect on a deeper level with God. It was established in 1982 by the Anawim Religious Community of Frenchville, Pennsylvania and is a place apart to rest, renew and be recreated for those seeking a deeper relationship with God.

Located on 140 acres of partially wooded land in the hills of Pennsylvania, it offers trails through the woods to the mountain-top cross, outdoor stations of the cross, 102' x 87' labyrinth, mysteries of the rosary, and a lovely Marian Grotto for meditation. There are also trails for walking, hiking, and jogging, and the large lawns and gardens create ample space for quiet reflection. There is a spacious dining room, home cooked meals, air-conditioned prayer space, large and medium conference rooms, hermitage space with kitchenette. Perfect for one-day or overnight conferences, retreats, sabbaticals, or private days. When the schedule permits, individuals and groups such as parish personnel are welcome to avail themselves of the prayerful atmosphere of the retreat center for a day or for overnight stays. Arrangements are tailored to the needs and desires of the individual or group. Check out the website for more information and for guided retreat schedules: bethanyretreatcenter.org/blog
