Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

Today's first reading comes from 1 Samuel, chapter 16. It's a marvelous narrative of David being called by God. We are in this narrative, but we have to look closely.

Notice that the prophet Samuel judged by appearance as to who would be the anointed son of Jesse's family. The Lord responded to the prophet Samuel, "Do not judge from his appearance or from his lofty stature...not as man sees does God see, because man sees the appearance but the Lord looks into the heart."

Brilliantly, God chooses the least expected. The first seven sons presented to Samuel were not the one chosen by God. In fact, the one chosen by God wasn't even in the starting lineup - he came off the bench. Instead, Jesse had to send for his youngest, least experienced, and weakest son named David who wasn't even there. The Lord then said, "this is the one!"

Then, in one of the most beautiful lines of Scripture, we read "the spirit of the Lord rushed upon David." Let me be clear - the Spirit continues to rush upon those we least expect.

Rarely does God choose the most intelligent, the most obvious, the most qualified, the most athletic, and the most excellent person for a mission. God doesn't get fooled by appearances. He isn't really interested in resumes. In fact, I don't recall reading about an interview process throughout the entire Biblical narrative.

Instead, God simply chooses. He builds upon our weaknesses, vulnerabilities, struggles, fears, worries, anxieties, and inabilities. He defeats Goliath from a little stone through a shepherd boy named David. He transforms the world through a fearful fisherman named Peter. He continuously makes saints out of sinners.

Like I said earlier, we are in this narrative. The question, of course, is which character are we? Are we judging by worldly appearances or are we in David's sandals - humbly ready for adventure with the Lord?

 Scripture, Music, Prayer, and a Guest Speaker
Fifth Sunday of Lent, Maureen Horan, Ph.D.

Maureen Horan was born in Bordentown, NJ, lived in Treasure Lake, retired to Manassas, VA. Her travels have taken her to all 50 states, as well as to Canada, Mexico, Australia, and Europe including Lourdes, France. She has made her livelihood over the past 44 years as a teacher, college professor, coach, athletic director, administrator, and sports psychologist. In her words, her greatest accomplishment is as a mother to 3 daughters, 3 sons-in-law, and grandmother to 2 grandsons. Maureen enjoys nature, watching all sports, walking, hiking, biking, fishing, bargain shopping, beating breast cancer for over 10 years, and cars.

When considering her spirituality, she highlights daily Mass and receiving Communion. She has learned to "Let go and let God." When life seems unfair, she gets through it with prayer, asks the angels for help, and accepts that everything happens for a reason. A woman of many gifts, Maureen has served on several Boards: Education at DCC, Christ King Manor, PSU Fundraising Chair, Athletic Boards, NCAA Chair, Pastoral Planning for the Erie Diocese, as well as a Hospital Eucharistic Minister, and a First Aid Instructor.

In Loving Memory

And until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand...

In your prayers please remember Lance Benton, husband of Evy Benton and Thadeus Pawlikowski, father of Janet McMurrer. May they rest in peace and may their families and friends find peace and comfort in the days ahead.

RETURN

Many, many people in our parishes are grieving a loved one's decision to leave the Catholic faith, whether it be a child, a grandchild, or another family member. Statistics are staggering. But it's not a lost cause! We do, of course, PRAY, but we can also learn WHY it's happening, and HOW to align ourselves with God's grace to influence their return.

A six-week book study and small group discussion will begin Tuesday, April 18, at 6:30 in McGivney Hall of St. Catherine's. Everyone from the five area Catholic parishes is invited to participate!

A small fee of $10 is asked to help defray the cost of the book we'll be using. Please call Cheryl and Jerry McIntosh (814-590-4409) or Chris and Chuck Meier (814-771-6149) by APRIL 7, if you have questions and to register.

Attention Kindergarten Parents
