The Parish Spotlight ~ DuBois Area Catholic School Students

DuBois Central Catholic is a local school that offers a catholic education beginning with Pre-K through 12th grade. Every week there is Mass for all students in Elementary, Middle, and High School and on Holy Days the entire school celebrates Mass together. Everyone at Central knows one another, students and teachers alike, not just by being in the same classroom but because everybody from preschool through senior year is in the same building. I had the privilege to speak to some of the DCC students from both partnered parishes. I asked the students what they liked the most about DCC.

Anna Vandervort said, “What I like most about DCC is the small classes.”

Derek Strouse also added, “It’s great that you stay in the same building and see all your past teachers regularly, and you see the younger students and get to help them.”

Jake Snyder commented, “What I like most about DCC is that we are a big family who all come together to learn while keeping a common faith throughout our lives. Being a senior this year, I’ve realized that Central has given so many opportunities not only in my faith and academic life, but in my social life as well, and I’m thankful to feel so welcomed and loved by everyone there!”

Andrew Reiter said, “I like Central because it’s small, we all are friends, and we get to pray, and talk about God.”

I thank some of my fellow DCC peers for taking the time to speak with me about our school. I wish all our school students a wonderful school year.
