Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection helps to preserve the sacred shrines. The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! Envelopes are in your packet and the giving opportunity is online. For more information, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday

Hailed one moment and rejected the next.

This seems to be the pattern that repeats itself not only throughout history but in our own lives as well. Jesus wants to be triumphantly welcomed into our hearts with joy! And welcome him we do! Then come the times when we do exactly the opposite and we reject the teachings of the Gospel and turn our backs on God's friendship. The one who at one time is a friend now becomes an enemy. Jesus understands our ambivalence. He lived it on the way to the cross. Understanding the full array of human emotion, God accepts us where we are. There is a great deal of drama on the road to Calvary. Our lives can be dramatic as well. In all of those whirlwind moments it can be difficult to find God's presence and understand his will. We walk with Jesus this week seeking inspiration and hope, the essential keys needed to unlock the door to God's presence in our lives.

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING IS 43:16-21

We hear in today's reading how the prophet Isaiah suffered for his commitment to his call and for his fidelity to the Lord. And yet, Isaiah never lost his faith in God. When has your faith been put to the test?

SECOND READING PHIL 3:8-14

Paul recites an early Christological hymn to the Philippians describing Jesus' human and divine nature. The hymn states that Jesus "did not regard equality with God something to be grasped." What do you think this assertion is teaching us about Jesus' dual nature?

GOSPEL READING LK 22:14-23:56

In his account of the passion narrative, we hear how Luke emphasizes the innocence of Jesus, noting both Pilate and Herod (Antipas) find Jesus innocent. Why do you think Luke highlights the verdict of Jesus as "not guilty" of any capital crime?

Religious Education

Upcoming Religious Education Classes:
 (Gr. K/1 meet during Mass after Children’s Liturgy)

 HEY PEEPS! On Sunday, April 10th, grades preschool through 8 are invited to our version of an Easter egg hunt/Escape room. All are welcome to join us after Mass (in place of class) and see what our high school students have prepared for you! We have lots of fun in store no matter what age you are! Families and all parishioners are invited to stay for refreshments and watch the fun unfold!

NO CLASS or Children’s Liturgy April 17 (Easter) and April 24 (First Communion)

A Family Perspective

Today Jesus tells us “I am among you as one who serves.” In accepting the palm branch today you publicly confirm your baptismal promise to follow Jesus as “one who serves.” Selfless service defines a family as Christian.

Child Abuse Prevention Month

Be Vigilant- Child Abuse Prevention Month should lead to heightened awareness of the need to be vigilant about providing a safe environment for all within the Church and for our communities. It is vitally important that we are constantly vigilant concerning the behaviors of those who interact with children and communicating our concerns to the appropriate parties. Each one of us can play an important role in strengthening this culture of prevention. For example, we can better prevent abuse by ensuring that the signs of abuse are identified and reported. Noticing these warning signs, taking them seriously, and reporting them could prevent abuse in the future. When we witness inappropriate behavior or something that just doesn’t seem quite right, we must report our concerns through the appropriate channels. For particular questions you may call: Cindy Zemcik, Coordinator for the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth in the Diocese of Erie at 814-824-1195.

“Spring in the Country” Luncheon and Auction is being planned for Sunday, May 22, 2022 by the Ladies Society.

Tickets are $9.00 and are available from any Ladies Society member, by calling the parish office mornings, or on our website allsaintsrcc.org.

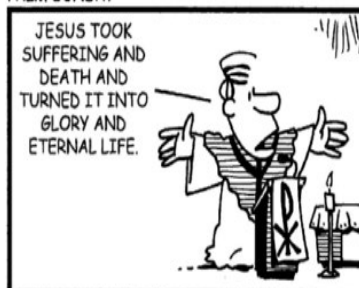

Donations for the Gift Auction are welcome! Please leave them in the box in the gathering space or drop them off during the week to the parish office. See the bulletin insert for ideas!

An invitation to pray...

All Saints has an email prayer ministry. Sandra DelPorto takes and passes on prayer requests by email. There are several prayer warriors on the email chain from our parish and beyond. Would you or someone you know like to join this ministry? Send an email to allsaint@allsaintsrcc.org and it will be forwarded to Sandra.
The Lord hears our prayers.

Thank you to all who purchased tickets for the Knights of Columbus Beef Raffle. The name of the winner will be published next weekend.
