The schedule for Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers and Altar Servers for September and October is on the table in the gathering space. Please take a moment to look at your calendar and sign up for a spot or two on the schedule. This is currently the only way to sign up for a ministry spot. All current ministers are welcome. Thank you.

The All Saints Safety Council is looking for additional members. The Safety Council's mission is to keep the All Saints community safe in the event of an emergency situation. The Safety Council formulates response procedures that address various emergency situations. In addition, the Safety Council coordinates the offering of educational programs to make the parish and home a safer place. Meetings are held quarterly with the next meeting occurring in October. If you have questions or an interest in participating please contact the parish office and leave a message if no one is there. Someone will return your call.

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

There will be a Diocesan-Wide Eucharistic weekend October 15th and 16th 2022. Here at All Saints Parish there will be a spiritual event with the celebration of Eucharistic Adoration at the conclusion of the Sunday morning 9:00 AM Mass and concluding at Noon with Benediction. The entire parish is welcome and encouraged to celebrate together as a Eucharistic People.

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING AMOS 8:4-7

The prophet Amos warns those who exploit the poor and the vulnerable will be harshly condemned by the Lord. In what ways do you defend those marginalized in our society?

SECOND READING 1 TIM 2:1-8

Paul teaches Timothy to be open, generous, and inclusive in his prayer life. How would you find this spiritual advice a challenge in your life?

GOSPEL READING LK 16:1-13

In the parable of the dishonest steward, Jesus praises the steward for resolving his dilemma, in the end, with prudence. With his parable, Jesus teaches his disciples an important lesson on the dangers of monetary wealth. How do you avoid the trap of choosing money over God?

Human beings are often very clever when managing money and making a profit. Sometimes, we place so much of our sense of security in money that we lower ourselves to deceit and fraud. Our need to produce a profit can easily lead to economic injustice and exploitation. Money is necessary to conduct the business of our lives. However, it cannot become the god we serve. Being smart, savvy, and creative with financial wealth can be good. Being smart, savvy, and creative with living out our relationship with God is even better. Our hearts have to find a home somewhere. Jesus reminds us of a choice we must make: God or mammon. We need to be cautious about "selling our souls" to what cannot fully satisfy us and falling into the traps of lust, gluttony, pride, and greed. Instead, we can better direct our efforts and our talents to the management of God's kingdom, which in the end is the only thing that matters. Any ideas on how we can use the talents and skills God gave us to make for a better world? ©LPI

A Family Perspective

Despite all our time saving gadgets, we still have less leisure and family time. To solve this we created the Myth of Quality Time. Don't be fooled: Quality Time is Quantity Time. Jesus counsels us today, we "cannot serve two masters" and expect to be happy. Dedicate time to your family. No one in their final hours regretted not spending more time at work.

Children in Preschool through Grade 4 are welcome to the Children's Liturgy of the Word during the 9:00 AM Mass on Sundays.

Diocesan Respect Life Sunday Mass with Bishop Persico

All are invited to celebrate life on October 2 at 11:30am at The Epiphany of the Lord Parish, 353 Pine Street Meadville, PA 16335. There will be a reception to follow immediately after. Pro-life Groups are encouraged to RSVP and attend together. Groups can RSVP by visiting the Social Justice and Life webpage www.ErieRCD.org/socialjusticelife or by calling 814-824-1250.

The 2022 Catholic Education Collection will take place this weekend. This important collection supports lifelong faith formation for all generations throughout our diocese. Please give generously and know that half of what you give will remain here at All Saints Parish to support our own religious education and faith formation programs. Without you, these programs would not be as successful as they are. Because of you, our many children and their families, both young and old, are led to greater faith.

THANK YOU for your support.

The community is invited to attend a free presentation, "Gertrude Barber: Exploring her life and the journey to sainthood" on Wednesday, Sept. 28 at 7 PM at the Jefferson Educational Society, 3207 State Street in Erie.

The program features Dr. Maureen Barber-Carey, executive vice president of the Barber National Institute, who will discuss Gertrude Barber's mission to bring opportunity and acceptance for individuals with intellectual disabilities and their families. Monsignor Tom McSweeney, postulator for the Cause for her canonization, will explain the path to sainthood and provide an update on progress made in her canonization process. A reception will follow.

The program is presented free of charge but reservations are requested at JESerie.org/events or 814-459-8000.

St. Lawrence and St. Philip Parish of Albion will be holding their Annual Fall Roast Beef Dinner on Sunday October 2nd at St. Lawrence Center, 129 E. Pearl St. in Albion.
