27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith." The Lord replied, "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you." - Lk 17:5-6

On behalf of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Bishop Lawrence Persico asks parishioners to advocate against a recent rule proposed by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) that would prevent Catholic hospitals, clinics, assisted living facilities and health care workers from carrying out their work. The new rule does not guarantee the right of health care workers and religious facilities to conscientiously object to participating in procedures including abortion. The direct link to send a message to the HHS is <https://www.votervoice.net/USCCB/Campaigns/97764/Respond>.

PLEASE NOTE THE DEADLINE FOR PARTICIPATION IS MONDAY, OCTOBER 3RD. SEE THE BULLETIN INSERT FOR MORE INFORMATION.

Why does God allow evil and suffering to occur? Looking around at what is happening in the world, it is tempting to get angry with God for not actively intervening. Jesus walked among the suffering and evil of his day. While he healed some things, he simply sat with the sinner, challenged the leaders, and spoke against injustice. Jesus spoke of God's kingdom and his vision for humanity. But he made it very clear that it is our responsibility to realize this vision. The disciples saw how Jesus lived and dealt with the day's circumstances. They wanted that same faith and determination. They wanted his fortitude and courage. Mostly, they wanted Jesus' confidence and patience that God's vision would someday be fulfilled. In the meantime, waiting in joyful hope, we become servants who do what is necessary; love, repent of our sin, show mercy, be compassionate and fight injustice. Willingly giving witness to our faith, we expect nothing in return. LPI

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING HAB 1:2-3; 2:2-4 13

The prophet Habakkuk complained to the Lord about the violence and misery that existed in his time. In response, the Lord instructed Habakkuk to record the vision he sent him, and to be patient in waiting for its fulfillment. Where are you waiting for the Lord's vision or direction in your life?

SECOND READING 2 TIM 1:6-8, 13-14

Paul urges Timothy to see his life and work as a model for passing on the faith, especially in times of hardship. Where do you feel it is hardest to talk about Jesus in your life?

GOSPEL READING LK 17:5-10

When the apostles ask Jesus to "increase our faith," Jesus challenges them to adopt the attitude of a servant. How do you think being a loyal servant to the Lord can increase your faith?

A Family Perspective

Faith is one of those things we just can't get enough of! In today's gospel the apostles asked Jesus to "Increase our faith." Where do you need an increase in faith: in yourself, your spouse, your children? In God? Faith equips us to overlook annoyances, helps us to forgive and urges us to ask forgiveness. "Lord, increase our faith!"

Children in Preschool through Grade 4 are welcome to the Children's Liturgy of the Word during the 9:00 AM Mass on Sundays.

EUCCHARISTIC REVIVAL

"WE BELIEVE HE IS TRULY PRESENT..."
BY BISHOP LAWRENCE PERSICO

"Each time we receive Holy Communion, it's an opportunity of grace for us to encounter the risen Lord in the Eucharist. That's quite a statement, don't you think? And yet, surprisingly, many Catholics do not fully understand or embrace this central facet of our faith. That's why the bishops of the United States are inviting Catholics into a three-year effort to grow in their understanding of the church's teaching on the Eucharist. The night before he died, Jesus gave us himself and promised to be with us always. Scripture records his words: "This is my body, this is my blood." We, as a matter of faith, believe those words. We believe he is truly present in the Eucharist. I look forward to the opportunity for all of us to study, to worship, to witness and to grow in our faith through this initiative. I encourage you to take full advantage of this moment, with open minds and hearts. Come, Holy Spirit, Come!"

A Diocesan-Wide Eucharistic weekend will be held on October 15th and 16th, 2022. Here at All Saints Parish there will be a spiritual event with the celebration of Eucharistic Adoration at the conclusion of the Sunday morning 9:00 AM Mass and concluding at 11:45 AM with Benediction.

The entire parish is welcome to spend time in adoration and prayer before the Blessed Sacrament as we celebrate together as a Eucharistic People.
