LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Though weighed down by grief, Martha rushes out to meet Jesus. She may not understand why he was absent upon the death of her brother, but her faithfulness is undeterred. In the hour of her heartbreak, she knows her only solace is in the embrace of the Lord. ©LPi

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING EZ 37:12-14

God revealed to the prophet Ezekiel his divine plan for the resurrection of the dead: “I (will) open your graves and make you come up out of them, my people!” As a person of faith, how does this promise give you hope?

SECOND READING ROM 8:8-11

Paul insists that for believers, the Spirit dwelling within us gives life to our mortal bodies, raising us from the dead as Christ was raised from the dead. How does this impact your thoughts about death itself?

GOSPEL READING JN 11:1-45

In her grief and sadness at the death of her brother Lazarus, Martha professes her belief in Jesus as the Messiah, the Son of God. As the season of Lent draws to a close, in what ways have the last 40 days strengthened your faith in Jesus as our Lord and Savior? ©LPi

A Family Perspective

Our families can become wrapped up chasing things we perceive will make us happy. Jesus' words to Lazarus, He says to us: "Come out" from what entombs you. In this fifth week of Lent "untie" yourself and be free from unnecessary possessions.

CONGRATULATIONS to Madison, Lillian and Bennett Link who are representing our parish in an essay contest for Communication Center and a visual arts and video contest for the Diocese of Erie! We are very proud of their submissions – GREAT JOB!!

ATTENTION COLLEGE STUDENTS AND 2023

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES: Are you looking for the best summer job of your life? Do you love working with children? Are you willing to share your faith?

Camp Notre Dame, a youth camp associated with the Diocese of Erie, may be the place for you. If you are interested in a counselor position, then please visit the Camp Notre Dame Web Site at www.campnotredame.com and click on the employment link.
