REMEMBERING YOUR LOVED ONES

During the month of November, All Saints remembers and honors ALL souls.

All parishioners are invited to write the names of your family members and friends who have died in the book in the gathering space. If you are not coming to the church at this time and would like your relatives and friends listed in the book, send them to the parish office by emailing allsaint@allsaintsrcc.org or calling the parish during office hours.

The collection for November 1 was $2,907.00 from the weekly collection and building maintenance and $1,126.00 from online giving for a total of $4,033.00.

All Saints Parish is sincerely thankful for the generosity of our parishioners, especially during the current pandemic. Please continue to pray for our parish. Please know that you are in the prayers of Fr. Greg, Deacon Tom, and the staff of All Saints. May God be with you and keep you healthy and safe.

Do you consider yourself spiritually mature and awake? We can become a little presumptuous in the Christian life and even put a little too much stock in God's mercy. We foolishly believe that in the end, God is going to give everyone a passing grade and all will be well. Therefore, until that time comes, I can remain mediocre in my faith disciplines and put aside the effort needed to go from okay to excellent.

We can be accomplished procrastinators! The meeting of God face-to-face either when we die or when Christ comes again, whichever comes first, is not going to be as casual as we may think. There is no earthly meeting in our experience that can even compare to what it will be like to meet God. To say that we are going to be caught up in awe is an understatement. But there is something even more significant than that to consider: If we haven't learned how to be attentive, recognize, and long for the holy of holies in this life, what makes us think we are going to recognize and desire it in the next?

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING WIS 6:12-16

Our Jewish sage personifies wisdom as someone eager to be found by those seeking her. Is the virtue of wisdom something you actively seek?

SECOND READING THES 4:13-18

Paul teaches the believers in Thessalonica about the sequence of events leading to the end-times. When do you find yourself thinking about the return of Christ and the final judgment?

GOSPEL READING MT 25:1-13

Jesus' parable of the ten virgins is a lesson about being prepared for the Second Coming of Christ. How prepared are you for this event?

A Family Perspective

The bridesmaids in today’s gospel were considered ‘foolish’ because they let their lamps go out. Don’t be foolish. Pay attention to the small acts necessary to keep the flame alive in all your relationships.

BOX OF JOY

facilitated by Cross Catholic Outreach is due TODAY. As of November 3rd we have collected 22 boxes and will be sending them off with the others we collect this weekend. Thank you to all who have participated in this project. “Bless the child who receives this Box of Joy and let it serve as an example of your grace and mercy.”

Thanksgiving Dinner Raffle!

The drawing will be on November 15th after Mass. Look for tickets after Mass today! The winner can choose dinner or cash option of $275. The proceeds from this raffle will go to directly to the parish thanks to the Knights of Columbus and the Ladies Society. Please call Lisa Chludzinski, (814)490-5419 for more information or for extra tickets.

VETERANS DAY

Lord God, Almighty Father, creator of mankind and author of peace, as we are ever mindful of the cost paid for the liberty we possess, we ask you to bless the members of our armed forces. Give them courage, hope and strength. May they ever experience your firm support, gentle love and compassionate healing. Be their power and protector, leading them from darkness to light.

Grateful for and inspired by those veterans who have given their lives for our country may we bravely face any challenges that lie ahead. To you be all glory, honor and praise, now and forever. Amen. (USCCB)

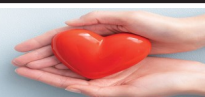

ALL SAINTS PARISH HELD THE FIRST ANNUAL ALL SOULS’ DAY SERVICE remembering those from the parish who have died in the last year. Approximately 50 family members attended the service. Two candles were lit for each person: one that was taken home by the family and one that you see burning this weekend in the church.

The “bereavement committee” of the All Saints Ladies Society sponsored the service. Thank you, Fr. Greg and Deacon Tom & Pam, for sharing your blessings upon these families. Thanks also, to Jennifer Surovic for the beautiful music.
