Erie March for Life

People for Life is hosting the Erie March for Life on January 28, 2023 from 10:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The march begins at Perry Square in downtown Erie. See flier on the bulletin board for details and visit www.peopleforlife.org for more information.

When I was a kid, I remember the priest at Mass announcing, "The Lamb of God!" Frankly, it struck me as nonsense. I thought: Why in the world does God have a lamb? And where is this lamb?

John the Baptist sees Jesus coming toward him and announces, "Behold the lamb of God." His Jewish listeners knew what he meant. God's lamb is the thing that is sacrificed at the Jewish Passover and consumed by the participants. For almost a thousand years, lambs were ritually slaughtered and eaten in Jerusalem at Passover. The lamb meant sacrifice, freedom from sin, and communion with God. The Baptist is saying in effect, "This man will be ritually sacrificed and consumed so that God's people may be free from sin and united to God."

It's crucial to relate to Jesus as a friend, brother, teacher, and Lord of our lives. But we should also learn to interact with Him as our lamb of God. That means we intentionally place on him our sins, sadnesses, and hopes, and offer him to God. Then we consume him to make us free. This is what we do at every Mass. That's why he is the Lamb of God. — Father John Muir ©LPi

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING IS 49:3, 5-6;

The prophet Isaiah spoke of how God, through Israel, would show his "glory" to all people and have his "salvation reach to the ends of the earth." What do you imagine the world will look like when this happens?

SECOND READING 1 COR 1:1-3

Today's reading is the opening greeting of Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. Paul tells the believers in Corinth that they (and all believers) are "sanctified" (blessed) and "called to be holy." What do you think it takes to be blessed and holy?

GOSPEL READING JN 1:29-34

In today's Gospel reading we hear John the Baptist testify that Jesus is the Son of God. If you had the chance, what would you tell people about Jesus?

HELP SPREAD THE FAITH COMMUNICATIONS COLLECTION, JANUARY 21 & 22

FROM BISHOP PERSICO:

“...I continue to take full advantage of every tool at our disposal to keep you informed about what is happening with the Catholic Church worldwide, across the United States and here in northwest Pennsylvania. This is no small effort, given the changing media landscape. We strive to reach you whether you prefer to read Faith magazine, receive the weekly Diocese of Erie news in your email or find us through social media. This requires interacting on a variety of platforms in order to reach different audiences. Thanks to your generous support of the annual Help Spread the Faith Communications Collection, all of these options and more remain available to you, free of charge. We have a small but dedicated team of communications professionals not only working to share important information, but also to write and promote stories that inspire. People tell us they pass these stories along or discuss them with family and friends — a great way to begin conversations that open doors and hearts.”

Donation envelopes are in your packet and the giving opportunity is available on WeShare online giving.
