JUST SAYING -

Titles and privileges, palaces and guards, banquets and benefits, servants and fine living, are all things earthly folks associate with kings and royalty.

These have no place in Christ. To understand the kingdom of Christ and what it means to have Christ as our king, one must be willing and able to understand transformation, engagement and empowerment.

To live in the kingship of Christ, we have to live deeply and contemplatively; allowing God to change not only how we act, but how we feel, think, and see. It is not an easy journey or one that is always welcomed. Sometimes, it is easier and safer to live as if Christ were our earthly king. It's a more black and white world.

But the kingdom of Christ exists in a world of gray where the hungry, thirsty, those who are strangers, naked, ill, and imprisoned find a welcome home. It is a kingdom that doesn't always make sense, where the last are first and the weakest are most strong. World economics and secular philosophy doesn't like this kind of king. Maybe that is why they crucified him the first time and continue to.

Whatever we do to the least of God's children, we do to God. Do you really want to inherit the kingdom? ©lpi

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING EZ 34:11-12, 15-17

Ezekiel speaks of God as the "shepherd" who will tend to his flock with great care and discerning judgment. What is this teaching us about God's divine nature?

SECOND READING 1 COR 15:20-26, 28

Paul reveals to the Corinthians the divine place of the resurrected Jesus Christ in God's final plans for salvation history. As Lord of all things, including death itself, Jesus will hand over everything to God at the end of time. Does this revelation bring you comfort or distress?

GOSPEL READING MT 25:31-46

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks of the final judgment that will accompany his Second Coming and the end of time. Jesus describes the final judgment in the stark and contrasting terms of eternal punishment. Why do you think so many people avoid thinking about Judgement Day?

 for ALL PARISHIONERS!

*O COME
 all ye faithful*

Please email a fun family pic to Maria (address above). If you are computer savvy and want to personalize it with your name or a personal greeting, please feel free to do so! We will take all of your pics and make a slide show to share with our parish through the website and Facebook! Please consider taking part. All pictures need to be received by November 30th so that we can share the greeting through the month of December! If you have any questions, please call Maria or Lia.

A Family Perspective

As the man in today's gospel entrusted his servants with his money, so God has 'entrusted' our family to us. Like the good servants we are expected, not to play it safe, but to selflessly and totally invest ourselves in each other.

Thanksgiving Prayer

This Thanksgiving, let us remember all the good things, and people, who have come into our lives. We focus on thanking each one who has helped us, and ultimately thank God for the good gifts of this world.

Let us pray...

*God our Father,
 Graciously accept from your humble people a thankful heart and spirit.
 Everything we have and are able to share with others ultimately comes from your love of your creations.
 Often we think that everything we have is our own creation;
 we ask you this day to create in us a spirit of gratitude,
 that we may always know that all good gifts come from you.
 We ask this through Christ our brother, in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.*

Angel Tree

All Saints will again be participating in the community Angel Tree. Interested "angels" can request a name of a local child and purchase items for Christmas. There will be tags made for toys and clothing. All items will be given to the Waterford and Summit Food Pantry clients. Tags with shopping details will be set up in church the weekend of November 28-29. If you are not attending church in person, but would like to help, please contact Val Rose at 602-9175 for a name.

All gifts must be returned to the church by December 13, or call Val to arrange a drop off.

Make ourselves ready to WELCOME the Lord
