"Giving Greener"

Are you trying to cut down on the paper you use? Is the check you write to our parish one of the few checks that you write anymore? You can give greener by using our Online Giving Program. Simply go to our parish APP or our parish website at www.allsaintsrec.org and click on the box at the top of the page that says "Give Online." You can set up the amount that you would like to give on a schedule that meets your needs and you never have to worry about writing another check, forgetting your envelope, or having cash in your wallet. Our parish greatly appreciates all those who choose to give in this manner as it helps us maintain a consistent cash flow and pay all of our bills in a timely manner.

Parish Council will meet this Thursday, August 1, at 7:00 PM. All are welcome to attend council meetings.

JUST SAYING -

After the Korean War ended, South Korea was left with a large number of children who had been orphaned by the war. We've seen the same thing in Vietnam, in Bosnia, and in other places. In the case of Korea, relief agencies came in to deal with the problems of having so many orphaned children.

People involved in this relief effort shared a problem they encountered with the children who were in the orphanages. Even though the children had three meals a day provided for them, they were restless and anxious at night and had difficulty sleeping. The workers soon discovered that the children had great anxiety about whether they would have food the next day.

To help resolve this problem, the relief workers in one orphanage decided that each night when the children were put to bed, the nurses would place a single piece of bread in each child's hand. The bread wasn't intended to be eaten; it was simply to be held by the children as they went to sleep.

It was a "security blanket" for them, reminding them that there would be provision for their daily needs. Sure enough, the bread calmed the children's anxieties and helped them sleep.

We generally take comfort in knowing that our physical needs are met, that we have food, or "bread," for our needs.

How do we respond to that reminder in the challenges of our daily lives and what does give us our daily bread mean for each?

The petition for daily bread was about a new form of society, a new family in which all help each other to enable the continued proclamation of the reign of God.

It is about a form of solidarity we call agape which means that each thinks in terms of the other, and that each asks what the other needs and then helps out accordingly.

The goal of our communion in agape is to continue the apostolic work of proclaiming the Gospel through the actions of our lives.

Religious Education

All Saints Parish welcomes our new Religious Education Leader Maria Burkley!

Could the Holy Spirit be moving you to share your faith with the children of All Saints Parish? Catechists are needed for the coming year for 3rd grade (First Communion) and 5th grade. Please contact Maria if you would like more information, or to volunteer.

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel guarantees if we "ask" we will "receive," perhaps not what we wanted but what our Heavenly Father knows is best for us. All the love we have for our children, God has for us and more. As our children trust us, we must trust "Our Father."

Congratulations to All Saints Parishioner, Susan Colvin, who was recently welcomed as an Associate of the Sisters of St. Joseph. Susan completed a year-long formation and was welcomed as an Associate on June 23rd.

Companions on the Journey provides an opportunity for women to enhance their health and "journey through life" by focusing on the Mind, Body, and Spirit Connection. Through education, empowerment and encouragement, individuals take responsibility for their well-being and seek ways to achieve personal growth and optimal health. Meeting topics vary to support the interests of the group and also include social and outreach options. Please join us in the parish social hall on the first and third Thursdays of each month beginning at 1:00 p.m. Our next meeting will be on Thursday, August 1st. All are welcome.

For more information about the group please contact Jennifer (864-4303) or Sandra (864-6850).
