JUST SAYING -

"Anyone who is my brother and sister and mother."

--Jesus
Mark 3:35 (NLT)

Why is it that when we human beings come face to face with utter selflessness and love, we sometimes distrust it and dismiss it as disingenuine?

What perversity erodes the human heart that it questions the motives and criticizes the actions of the truly good people among us?

If someone makes a very generous donation to a charity or other needy organization, they are suspected of looking for a tax break or seeking publicity.

When someone volunteers their free time to tend to the needs of dying AIDS patients, some regard them as "crazy" or, at least, very foolhardy.

When someone dares to confront the status quo with the truth, or points out the error of certain traditions or rituals, they leave themselves vulnerable to the scorn and rejection of those less courageous.

This was precisely the situation reflected in today's gospel.

A Family Perspective

Jesus reminds us in today's gospel "a house divided against itself will not stand." Are the tensions and issues which divide your home worth the struggle? Even if you win an argument you lose a relationship. Don't let pride and pettiness divide your home.

The Dioceses of Erie and Greensburg are teaming up for our First Annual Quo Vadis Days (QVD) held at St. Philip Church and Retreat Center, Linesville from Sunday, July 8 – Wednesday, July 11.

This is a four-day retreat/camp for high school boys that are considering seminary, the priesthood, and striving to follow God's call in their life. QVD is welcoming Bishop Lawrence T. Persico and Bishop Edward C. Malesic, from Greensburg to celebrate Masses. We will also have other visiting priests to give talks and seminarians to lead us throughout the week.

"Quo Vadis" is the Latin phrase for "Where are you going?" The legend is that St. Peter was fleeing the persecution of Nero and leaving Rome, when he saw Jesus heading into Rome. Peter asks Jesus, "Lord, where are you going? Jesus responds, "To Rome to be crucified." Then Jesus disappeared. At that moment Peter headed back into Rome to face martyrdom.

The first thing that I would ask is to pray for the fruitfulness of the camp. Second, please personally invite at least one young man (or more!) from your parish/school/youth group. Many young men take their spiritual lives seriously, have a desire to serve the Lord, and are indeed thinking about their vocation.
