Good dietitians will remind us that we are not only the product of what we eat but the disciplines we undertake. Many people spend a great deal of time and effort eating a healthy diet, getting a sufficient amount of rest, and engaging in regular exercise. Experts tell us that attending to these increases our chances for a long life. While this is certainly a worthy pursuit, is our earthly life really the one that requires the most attention and effort?

Faith kicks in to remind us that we are meant to live forever with God. Hence, isn't it our eternal destiny that requires most of our effort and attention?

The food and nourishment we need to achieve this goal and fine tune our souls for this promised inheritance are the Body and Blood of Christ.

Only this heavenly sustenance will unite us with God and our brothers and sisters, strengthen us to do what the Gospel asks us to do and prepare us for life eternal. Through the discipline of prayer, our desire to receive our Lord is deepened. It is this yearning, above anything else, that we want clearly seen and front and center when we close our eyes in death. God loves us so much that he gave us his only begotten Son.

Let us rush to receive him! ©LPI

Gracious God and Father, our first father, You are the One who has brought us to life in this world you created. You created us and everything around us. We turned away from you and only after disappointing you did we return your love.

Look with favor on our earthly fathers. They helped create us in your image.

Bless all our fathers, living and deceased, with comfort and health. We bring all their needs to you and ask for strength so they may live worthy lives.

We ask all this in the name of your Son, our model of what it means to reverence our fathers. In Christ's name. Amen.

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING GEN 14:18-20

We hear in the reading from Genesis a victory meal of bread and wine between Abraham and Melchizedek, king of Salem. This is the Bible's first recorded meal of thanksgiving. Why do you think celebratory meals are so central to the storyline of the Bible?

SECOND READING 1 COR 11:23-26

In his letter to the Corinthians written around 55AD, Paul preserves for us the earliest attestation of the words Jesus spoke at the Last Supper. Jesus' institution of the Eucharist is core to our faith. Why do you think more Christians today do not appreciate the importance of this tradition?

GOSPEL READING LK 9:11-17

The miracle of the feeding of the 5,000 with loaves and fishes in many ways helps all believers understand how we need to be nourished by Jesus. In what ways does the Eucharist feed and sustain you in your daily life?

Religious Education

Maria Burkley—(814)969-2868 (call or text)

FATHER'S DAY CAR WASH!

Our teens are raising money for their trip to California for NCYC this November. For only $6.00, have your car washed during 9:00 Mass on Sunday, June 19th!

June 26th – NEXT SUNDAY—Social after Mass until Noon. Fun on the lawn, hot dogs & chips. Coffee after Mass. Everyone is invited!

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel Jesus teaches we will find abundance by sharing what little we have. No matter how little time, money or food we have, it is enough when shared.

Changes coming to our Faith Formation Program

Please contact Maria Burkley for more information or to volunteer to share your faith as a mentor for our young people.

So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary,
but what is unseen is eternal.
