“What God has joined together.”

We are all familiar with these words. Because man and woman are essentially of the same substance, although also distinctively different, there is an innate desire to be connected and united.

Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. But they can also be celebrations of great union and happiness. This is proven by couples who have been married for many years who still have that same twinkle of devotion in their eyes that was present on their wedding day. God designed it to be this way. By God’s power, the two become one. This is not of human design. The true intimacy of marriage is a Divine Intimacy. It is a bond created by a power far greater than any found in the two people who are joined. Marriage is where the virtue of love is most fully expressed. © LPI

REFLECT ON TODAY’S READINGS

FIRST READING GEN 2:18-24

Today’s creation account of man and woman is the foundation of our Judeo-Christian understanding of the covenant of marriage. When a male and a female marry, “the two of them become one body.” What do you see as some modern implications in this understanding of marriage?

SECOND READING HEB 2:9-11

The author of Hebrews tells us that we are “brothers” with Jesus in our common experience of suffering and death. In what way do you find comfort in this idea?

GOSPEL READING MK 10:2-16

Both in public with the Pharisees and later in private with the disciples, Jesus takes a strong stand on the sacred and unbreakable bond of marriage. How do you imagine the Pharisees and the disciples reacted to Jesus’ position?

“WARMING ERIE” SPONSORED BY GECAC

All Saints Parish is collecting NEW blankets, towels, gloves, hats, scarves, socks, masks, and coats for men, women and children and personal items for the less fortunate in Erie County. The Greater Erie Community Action Center will be distributing the collected items on Saturday, October 16, 9:00 AM until they run out, at the Senior Center in Union City, and on October 30 in Erie. Spread the word! GECAC will give away items to anyone who comes to the event who can show they are a resident of Erie County. Do you know anyone who can benefit? WE will collect items between today and Thur. Oct. 15 for Union City, and Oct. 24 for Erie.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments-

Diocesan Code of Conduct: The Diocese of Erie is committed to protecting the children and youth who are entrusted to its care and to ensuring that those in ministry with our young people are in right relationship with the children/youth receiving services. To share in the ministry of Christ is a great privilege as well as a tremendous responsibility. The privilege is the joy of sharing in the mission of Jesus Himself. The responsibility is acting in a way that conforms to the attitude and actions of Christ. In this spirit, the diocese has issued a ministerial Code of Conduct. The code is included in the diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children. To read the Code of Conduct, go to: <https://www.eriecd.org/images/sections/childprotection/pdf/CURRENTPolicy.pdf> For more information, contact Mrs. Cindy Zemic, in the diocesan Office for the Protection of Children at 814-824-1195.

MONTH OF THE ROSARY - OCTOBER

The Rosary is an important tool for prayer in our lives. The entire month of October has been dedicated to the Rosary. The liturgical feast of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated every year on Oct. 7. It was instituted to honor the Blessed Virgin Mary in gratitude for the protection that she gives the Church in answer to the praying of the Rosary by the faithful. In the month of October, let us consider this beautiful prayer of the Rosary as a means that we too can use in order to draw closer to Jesus and Mary by meditating on the great mysteries of our salvation.

27th annual Rosary March Sunday, October 10, 2:00 PM

St. Jude the Apostle Church, 2801 W. 6th, Erie. Come join us and PRAY THE ROSARY! Services will be livestreamed at www.stjudeapos.org. For those unable to march, rosary will be recited in the church while the march is taking place.

BOX OF JOY is an annual Christmas gift ministry organized by local Catholic schools, parishes and groups across the United States and facilitated by Cross Catholic Outreach. By packing Boxes of Joy with toys and other gifts, participants bless children suffering from extreme poverty by sharing the joy of Christmas and planting seeds of hope. For many poor children, Box of Joy filled with toys, clothing, and school supplies might be the first Christmas gift they ever receive. Cross Catholic Outreach adds a rosary and the Story of Jesus to each box as we evangelize our faith and share the joy of Christmas.

There are boxes available in the gathering space to take home and fill—or you may use your own shoebox or plastic box no larger than 12” x 5”. You may fill a box for a boy or a girl in one of 3 age groups—2-4 years of age, 5-9 years of age, or 10-14 years of age.

The website <https://crosscatholic.org/box-of-joy/> has more information, or call Lia in the parish office after October 4th. Boxes must be returned by November 7th.
