PARISH SUPPORT

Please be aware that like any family, our parish has ongoing operating costs. We are entirely dependent upon you to meet those financial obligations. Please continue to make your weekly offertory gifts. You may mail your envelope to All Saints Parish, 11264 Rt 97 N, Waterford, PA 16441.

OR...Consider WeShare Online Giving...

Visit our website— www.allsaintsrcc.org and click on the “Give Online” button. It is quick and easy to set up. The parish is assured of those contributions each week. This past week our regular offertory (Weekly and Building Maintenance) was from online giving for a total of $1,110.00. You are also able to contribute to the Capital Campaign, Catholic Services Appeal, Food Pantries, Good Friday Collection and others.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish at this difficult time.

THIS WEEK IN OUR PARISH:

All Masses and activities at our parish are suspended at this time.

We know these are difficult times for everyone, including you and your family. All Saints Parish remains committed to the spiritual care of our parishioners and the faithful in our communities. Although how we do that is changing temporarily, our purpose remains the same. Please be assured of our prayers for you and your families, particularly in the daily private Mass Father Greg is offering for your intention.

Look for a 7:30 AM livestream Sunday Mass on: <https://www.facebook.com/tom.mcaraw/videos/3428846370464155/?d=n> (here is last week's)

The church will be open for personal prayer on Saturdays from 3:30 PM to 5:30 PM and on Sundays from 9:00 AM to Noon. Please maintain social distance between yourselves and others. Confessions will continue on Saturdays from 3:30 PM until 4:00 PM. The church will not be open on Holy Saturday, April 11th. More info coming soon. If you have questions, contact (814)796-3023.

JUST SAYING -

Help us
who believe in you
to cling to the hope
that in death
life is only changed, not ended.

The death of loved ones confronts us with the big questions of life: Why are we here? What survives beyond the grave?

Prayer

Jesus, draw near to us in our hour of sorrow.
Help us who believe in you to cling to the hope that in death life is only changed, not ended.
Strengthen us in the belief that one day we, too, will be resurrected, forever reunited with our loved ones, where there will be no more sickness, no more sadness, no more tears. For then we will share with you, through you, and in you—the gift of eternal life. —J. Michael Sparough, S.J.

First Communion Families

are able to pick up their workbooks and materials this weekend for preparing their children for First Communion.

Watch for REMIND messages and useful information for working on Religious Education at home. If you think you are not connected to Maria Burkley or your child’s catechist through REMIND please contact Maria right away.

A Family Perspective

Our families can become wrapped up chasing things we perceive will make us happy. Jesus’ words to Lazarus, He says to us: “Come out” from what entombs you. In this fifth week of Lent “untie” yourself and be free from unnecessary possessions.

Spiritual Communion prayer - pray it every day:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul.

Since I cannot receive you at this moment sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.

Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.
