JUST SAYING

"I am offering people a vessel with which they are to keep coming for graces to the fountain of mercy. That vessel is this image with the signature:

"Jesus, I trust in You"
(Diary, 327)

"Mankind will not have peace until it turns to my mercy"
(Diary, 300)

"Tell the whole world about My inconceivable mercy.

I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially poor sinners.

Today the very depths of My tender Mercy are open.

I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon the souls who approach the Fount of My Mercy."

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love you above all things, and I desire to receive you into my soul. Since I cannot receive you at this moment sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you. Amen.

Watch for REMIND messages and useful information for working on Religious Education at home. If you think you are not connected to Maria Burkley or your child's catechist through REMIND please contact Maria.

A Family Perspective

"Whose sins you forgive, are forgiven" means the Kingdom of God begins in your home where children learn the paths to peace modeled by their parents. Any grudges we carry can only make us more miserable with time.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments Child Abuse Prevention Month:

The "Creating A Safe Environment" training program is an integral component to the prevention effort in our diocese. The mandated program trains employees and volunteers in the warning signs of abuse and how to report suspected abuse of a minor. Since 2003 over 59,000 adults in the diocese have received the training to recognize and report child abuse. With the help of the safe environment training program, the faithful are guided and educated about the responsibility to keep God's children protected and safe. Visit <https://www.eriercd.org/childprotection/> to take the training program or learn what is required for employees and volunteers to work with children in diocesan parishes/schools/agencies.

Parishioners—do you need help with anything? Can someone pick up groceries or medicines for you? Call the parish office, mornings, 796-3023.

Know that you are in the prayers offered by Fr. Greg in the daily and weekend Masses. Let us continue to pray for each other.

Prayer in Time of Pandemic—Pray every day at NOON

Lord Jesus,
You came to bring salvation to our world.
You humbled yourself to accept death on a cross.
Be with us as we confront the spread of the coronavirus with courage and hope.
Be present to the sick and to those who accompany them in their suffering.
Strengthen our medical professionals and caregivers; comfort families who are separated from one another.
Protect those who are at risk of the virus in their work.
Grant wisdom to our civic officials and perseverance to scientists. Spare us from the ravages of this illness and console us in our uncertainty and fear.
Unite us in hope, enlighten us in faith, and give us the grace as a Church to love one another as You have loved us.
Through the intercession of our Heavenly Mother, we make this prayer as we place our trust in You.
Amen.

Imprimatur, April 8, 2020 The Most Reverend Lawrence T. Persico, JCL
Bishop of Erie

Divine Mercy Sunday

Question:

Where did the feast of Divine Mercy come from?

Answer:

If you were born well before the year 2000, you know the feast of Divine Mercy has not always been celebrated in the Church. In the early 1900s, a young Polish nun began receiving private revelations. Jesus appeared to her during her times of prayer, speaking a message of mercy and love for the world. She received a set of prayers — the Divine Mercy Chaplet — and the request to have a feast day established to remind the Church of the mercy of God. St. Faustina died in 1938, on the cusp of war and in the midst of one of the most violent centuries in the history of the world.

Her story and her diaries began circulating in Poland and beyond. It quickly became apparent that this was a holy young woman, and the cause for her canonization opened. In the year 2000, she was canonized by the first-ever Polish pope, St. John Paul II. On her canonization day, he established the second Sunday of Easter as Divine Mercy Sunday, "a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that mankind would experience in the years to come." CLP

On the lighter side...

What Next?

God was talking to one of his angels and said, "Do you know what I have just done? I've just created a 24-hour period of alternating light and darkness on Earth. Isn't that great?"

The angel said, "Yes, but what will you do now?"

God said, "I think I'll call it a day."
