Please get permission to post the names. If you submit a name, please let us know if we need to remove a name from the list. Sandra DelPorto continues to lead the email prayer chain. Greed is more present and powerful in our lives than we care to admit. We like our “stuff” and are hesitant to part with it.

What we convince ourselves that we really need, we really do not. If everything we own is taken away from us tomorrow, life will continue. We will find happiness again. How many relationships are ruined because of inheritance issues? Our possessions cannot come with us when we die. Why do we foolishly think that we cannot live without them here? Wealth and happiness do not have physical origins; true wealth and happiness are gifts of God’s kingdom and matters of heart and soul. We are much more than what we possess, and greed is more real and operative than we think.

Let us begin our journey to detachment with an honest admission. We often place more importance on things than on people and God. Ask God to accept our conflicted hearts and give us the courage to do things differently.

REFLECT ON TODAY’S READINGS

FIRST READING ECC 1:2,2:21-23

Ecclesiastes speaks of “vanity” in the sense of emptiness or futility, such as those who seek to build their legacy or those who suffer with a restless heart. How are you able to remain focused on the important things in your life?

SECOND READING COL 3:1-5, 9-11

Paul teaches the Colossians that the key to focusing on “what is above, not on what is on earth” is to live a moral and upright life, grounded in your faith in Christ. Who do you know who does this well?

GOSPEL READING LK 12:13-21

Jesus tells the parable of the rich fool in response to a question about inheritance, warning the crowd about over dependence on possessions. How do you balance your material needs with “what matters to God?”

Religious Education

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel Jesus teaches us: "One's life does not consist of possessions." We spend so much time working to obtain more stuff; we don't have time for the people in our lives. What is enough? Are the words of Jesus, "You fool", meant for us?
