Bishop Persico is reinstating the obligation to attend Mass in person on Sundays and holy days in the Diocese of Erie beginning on Sunday, Aug. 15, 2021, the Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. As always, the obligation does not apply to those with serious illness or health risks, as well as their caregivers.

Re-remembering our Sunday Story

As we emerge from these most difficult days, I would like to personally invite you to return to your spiritual home here at All Saints Parish, to pray with your parish community, to encounter Christ in the Eucharist and to simply be together in fellowship. Simply put, it is a wonderful moment of grace to Re-member Our Sunday Story together. We need each other. We are not whole when we are separated.

Even as I invite you to come home, I want to assure you I understand that each person needs to return at the time that is best for himself or herself. We each have our own journey and our own story. But the banquet table is set — waiting for you to bring your challenges and find the love and graces so necessary in life. We look forward to having the community reunited. Fr. Greg

THIS WEEK IN OUR PARISH:

Sunday, 8/01	9:00 AM Mass
Wednesday, 8/04	NO morning Mass
Friday, 8/06	7:00 PM Cursillo Ultreya
Saturday, 8/07	4:30 PM Mass

When we lose our ability to trust, we become afraid. When we are afraid, we may begin to grumble and question whether where we are is where we need to be. For us who have faith, we even question whether God is who God says He is. Trust is so important to our success on our journey. Often, the road of our lives can become a bit treacherous. We may find ourselves feeling more unsettled than comfortable and less fulfilled than we would like to be. As much as we try, the pieces of our puzzle don't quite fit together as they ought. We wonder if we will ever experience happiness again. Then, something reminds us that God is very much present in this mess we call life.

God is still bringing hope out of despair and life out of death. After all, God is the true bread that comes down from heaven to give life. All that is necessary is for us to trust in this truth, even when we may be lacking in some of life's essentials. The God who gives life is the same God who sustains it. He is also the same God who assures us that we will not perish.

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING EX 16:2-4, 12-15

Early in their Exodus journey, the Israelites expressed fear and frustration to Moses. God heard and responded to their "grumbling" by sending bread from heaven. When have you experienced God answering your plea for help?

SECOND READING EPH 4:17, 20-24

Paul told the Ephesians that as believers in Christ you should "put away" the bad parts of "your former way of life." How have you done this in your life as a believer in Christ?

GOSPEL READING JN 6:24-35

We hear today the introduction of Jesus' extended "bread of life" discourse. In referring back to the ancient Israelites who ate "manna" (bread) in the desert, Jesus tells the crowds: "I am the bread of life." How would you explain to someone how Jesus sustains you?

REMEMBER ALL SAINTS PARISH IN YOUR WILL

"I give and bequeath to All Saints Parish, 11264 Route 97 N., Waterford, PA 16441, the sum of _____ dollars, real estate and/or stock for the purpose of assisting All Saints Parish in furthering the work of the Church." Thank you for your consideration.

Religious Education

On July 25th, some of our Middle School youth and their families met to introduce the new curriculum for MS Religious Education this fall. Check out their tee shirts—“Because of God, I am.”

A Family Perspective

In today’s gospel Jesus tells us: “Do not work for what perishes.” Give your life to what endures such as the family history you are creating, the love and mutual respect which bonds you together, the memories you share and the forgiveness generously given. These are the true treasures that are worth working and dying for.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments-

Documentation for Safety: Working alongside the Bishop, the Office for the Protection of Children and Youth reinforces the ongoing implementation of policies and procedures that protect children. All employees, volunteers and clergy in the Diocese of Erie who work with children must undergo criminal record checks. The diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children and Youth screening guidelines and abuse prevention training programs emphasize the importance of knowing the employees and volunteers who have access to children in our schools and parishes. Parents should remain vigilant in insisting that those with access to their children have gone through an application process and obtained the required clearances and trainings before being granted access to their children. Visit <https://www.eriecd.org/childprotection/> to see what documentation and training is required for those who work with children and youth in our parishes/schools/agencies.
