Relationships are hard to clarify.

Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts.

Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing! 1 Pt

REFLECT ON TODAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING IS 62:1-5

The prophet Isaiah used marriage imagery (bride and groom) to describe the Lord's love for his people, Israel. What do you see as some implications of this marriage imagery?

SECOND READING 1 COR 12:4-11

Paul taught the Corinthians that the individual gifts of the Holy Spirit are meant to benefit and unify the community of faith. How do you use your spiritual gifts within your faith community?

GOSPEL READING JN 2:1-11

Jesus turning water into wine at the wedding feast in Cana was one of the first public "signs" he performed revealing his divinity. It also showed Jesus' compassion, sparing the family shame at running short of wine. How do you imagine the family reacted to Jesus' intervention and rescue?

A Family Perspective

At Cana we get a good insight into Mary's parenting style. She did not plead, argue, demand or manipulate. She merely pointed out the situation and trusted her son would make the best decision.

FROM BISHOP PERSICO: NEXT WEEKEND'S COLLECTION—"HELP SPREAD THE FAITH" DIOCESAN COMMUNICATIONS COLLECTION

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
I am grateful every day for the resources we have to help spread the Gospel message. Imagine how different our experience of the pandemic would be if we did not have the ability to Zoom or to livestream. It is changing the way we approach so many aspects of our lives. At the heart of all that communicating is strong content. That's why the Diocese of Erie continues to invest in a team dedicated to providing you with thoughtful publications, social media posts, web resources and more, all designed to help me in my role as shepherd of the Diocese of Erie. Some of it comes right to your mailbox in the form of Faith, an engaging magazine filled with the stories and testimonies of Catholics striving to grow closer to Christ in northwest Pennsylvania. Despite the challenges of the pandemic, we have not missed a beat with this important resource, and in fact, have used it to provide much-needed encouragement and updates. When I emphasize the need for strong communications, I am thinking first and foremost of you. My work is done in service to Christ and to you. I strive to take full advantage of every tool at our disposal to keep you informed about what is happening with the Catholic Church worldwide, across the United States, and here in northwest Pennsylvania. Do you know why the upcoming Synod on Synodality at the Vatican is important? Are you aware that the US bishops are collaborating on an effort to help American Catholics understand and embrace the church's teaching on the Eucharist over the next three years? And what's the latest on pastoral planning in our diocese? This year we've reported on all this and more in Faith, in the weekly Diocese of ErieNews, at www.ErieRCD.org and on our social media platforms. Thanks to your generous support, all of it remains available free of charge. Please consider participating the 2022 Help Spread the Faith collection scheduled for the weekend of January 22nd – 23rd. It's one important way to fulfill Jesus' command to go forth and make disciples of all nations.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
The Most Reverend Lawrence T. Persico, JCL, Bishop of Erie

In an effort to coordinate the parish calendar for all parish events, organizations, Religious Education classes, fundraisers, etc., a monthly calendar is posted on the bulletin board in the gathering space and included in the bulletin and on the website near the first weekend of the new month. (A full year calendar is located in the parish office.) Please send additions or deletions to the parish office by email to allsaint@allsaintsrcc.org or call the parish office during regular business hours. Thank you.

The All Saints Ladies Society will meet on Tuesday, Jan. 18, at 6:00 PM. All women of the parish are invited.

The Ladies Society serves our parish in many ways. Today's parish social after Mass is compliments of the Ladies Society. Bereavement Ministry, which includes providing dinners following funerals, sending cards to those who have lost a loved one, and having a Mass offered in their memory, is another way the Ladies serve.

The next fundraiser, "Spring in the Country Luncheon and Auction" is being planned for Sunday, May 22nd. Bring your ideas to Tuesday's meeting as planning begins!
