Twenty-Eighth Sunday Ordinary Time – Twentieth Sunday after Pentecost in Latin Mass

Please pray for the soul of parishioner Betty Stablein who recently passed away. Betty was a long-time member of Holy Family Church. Our sympathy is extended to her family.

Please also pray for the repose of the soul of Mike Skapura, who was a member of our parish and who was very devoted to the Latin Mass. His Requiem mass was celebrated by Fr. Power on Thursday at St. Casimir. Mike was a long-time server and Master of Ceremonies for the Latin Rite and trained numerous other servers. He had a very strong understanding of the mass and rubrics, and on a personal note was very helpful to me when I first arrived in the parish and throughout my time here. He certainly touched many of us and will be missed.

There have been requests to have the rosary prayed prior to the 9:00 am Mass. This was a long-standing tradition and was discontinued due to the restrictions in place during the early days of the pandemic. Please see me if you are interested in leading the rosary. If there is enough interest, we can rotate leaders each week.

Rosary March is Today: The 27th annual Rosary March, sponsored by the Erie Division of the World Apostolate of Fatima, will be held today, Oct. 10 at 2PM at St. Jude the Apostle Parish, 2801 W. 6th St., Erie. Enrollment in the Brown Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel will be held following the prayer service. The event will be livestreamed on St. Jude's website at www.stjudeapos.org. For more information, call John Walsh at 814-868-1100.

There will be a Potluck Breakfast in the church hall on Sunday, October 31st after the 9:00AM Mass. Please invite your family, friends, and neighbors to mass and to share a meal with your church family. Please bring a dish, hot or cold, to share.

Family Communion Breakfast scheduled at Blessed Sacrament Parish, 1626 W. 26th St., Erie, is hosting its Family Communion Breakfast on Oct. 24 immediately following the 8:30AM Mass. The featured speaker is Deacon Greg Kandra of the Diocese of Brooklyn, New York, who will share how the events of 9/11 shaped his vocation to the permanent diaconate. He co-wrote the CBS documentary "9/11." In his 30-year broadcast journalism career, Deacon Kandra won a number of awards, including two Emmys, two Peabody Awards and four awards from the Writer's Guild of America. Tickets are $10/12 and up; children under 12 eat free if attending with a paying adult. Tickets are on sale after all Masses or at the parish office daily from 7:30AM-3:30PM.

Fall Fest planned at Mercy Center of the Arts; pre-school seats still available. Mercy Center of the Arts, now located at Our Lady of Mount Carmel School, 1531 East Grandview Blvd., Erie, is a sponsored preschool ministry of the Sisters of Mercy. In operation since 1970, the school integrates art, music and sciences into a curriculum that successfully prepares children for kindergarten and life-long learning. All are welcome to the Mercy Center of the Arts Fall Fest on Oct. 24 from 2 to 4 p.m. There will be games, apple cider, crafts and sweets. There are still seats available for the Tuesday/Thursday preschool class. To learn more about the school, go to www.mercycenterofthearts.com. Private tours are available by calling 814-824-2519.

Medicine, Bioethics and Spirituality Conference scheduled for February: Healthcare Professionals for Divine Mercy are hosting their Medicine, Bioethics and Spirituality Conference on Feb. 11-13, 2022. This virtual conference is open to anyone interested in healthcare and the role of bioethical principles, as well as spirituality that helps bring forth definitive healing to the infirm and those suffering in any way. Healthcare professionals may obtain continuing medical education credits. Conference registration can be completed at www.thedivinemercy.org/healthcare or by calling 1-800-462-7426. See more information at www.marianweb.net/archives/pdfs/events/eml17th_Annual_span_style_1678.pdf.

St. Stanislaus Parish will be hosting "A Taste of Poland" today from 11:30AM–5:00PM. The event is the same as their traditional "Parish Day" simply under a different title.

Bingo planned Oct. 17 at Polish Falcons: Erie's St. Mark the Evangelist and Mount Calvary parishes, with the Knights of Columbus #13826, are hosting a cash bingo event on Oct. 17 to benefit children and youth programs at both parishes, as well as the charities of Knights #13826. The event will be held at the Polish Falcons Club, 431 E. 3rd St., Erie. Doors open at 11:30AM. Only 200 tickets are available; $20 per ticket. To purchase tickets, contact Stacey Badowski at 814-899-3000 or Frank at 814-823-2528. Besides bingo, there will be cash prizes, a basket raffle and games of chance. Kitchen and cash bar will be available through the Polish Falcons.

Hungry for Chuck & Ginny's spaghetti? St. Jude the Apostle Parish in Erie is hosting a Chuck & Ginny's spaghetti dinner Oct. 24 from 11:30AM-5:30PM. in the school gymnasium, 2801 W. 6th St. $10 per person; $5 per child. Take-outs are available at the door. Featuring Erie's own Ginny's sauce from Chuck & Ginny's.

Win a Corvette! St. Jude the Apostle Parish in Erie is sponsoring a charity car raffle. Win a 2021 Corvette Stingray 1LT or $40,000 at a live drawing on Christmas Eve 2021. Tickets are $100 (only 3,000 tickets are being sold). For complete details, go to www.stjudeapos.org or www.winavette.com.

St. Joseph/Bread of Life and the Latin Mass Community will be co-hosting an Adult Faith Formation Series on the Documents of Vatican II. Sessions will be held from 7–8PM, October 18, 25, November 8, 15, and 22. in the St. Joseph Community Center at 147 West 24th Street. Visit www.stjosephbol.org/vatican-ii for more details.
