

Catholic References

Catechism of the Catholic Church, Simplified

A streamlined and easy-to-read presentation of the Catholic faith. Paragraph numbers correspond to those found in the official Catechism of the Catholic Church.

<http://www.catholicity.com/catechism/>

Catholic Almanac

The Catholic Almanac will celebrate 100 years of publishing the most reliable Catholic information and statistics in 2004. On our web site you'll find searchable information, including a biography of Pope John Paul II, an extensive glossary, saints, bishops, cardinals, and more.

<http://www.osv.com/OSV4MeNav/CatholicAlmanac/tabid/92/Default.aspx>

Catholic Encyclopedia

Online edition of the Catholic Encyclopedia.

<http://www.catholicity.com/encyclopedia/>

EWTN

Eternal Word Television Network was founded by Mother Angelica. This site features an extensive Catholic library, highlights and schedules of EWTN television programming, RealAudio access to WEWN short wave radio, and an email service to answer your questions about the faith.

<http://www.ewtn.com/>

Free Catholic eBooks

Free Catholic e-books is a new truly Catholic site committed to bringing Catholic books and material that in many cases are out of print or very hard to get. Presenting Catholic teaching and reading that is faithful to the Magisterium of the Church. All our material is from the public domain or with permission.

<http://www.freecatholicbooks.com/>

The Complete Sayings of Jesus: With Detailed Meditations on His Words and Deeds

The Complete Sayings of Jesus: With Detailed Meditations on His Words and Deeds

<http://http://thesayingsofjesus.com/>

Vatican Website

The official site of the one, universal, apostolic, holy Catholic Church in Rome--available in English, Dutch, French, German, Spanish, Italian, and Portuguese. Explore the Vatican Library, Museum and Archives; get late-breaking news; learn about the Roman Curia, discover Church history, teachings, theology and traditions. Papal schedules.

<http://www.vatican.va/>