Memorial Day Prayer

Dear Lord, on this day, we remember those who have served us by protecting our freedoms. When we celebrate our long weekend with our friends and family, help us remember, that our freedom to speak of you, and our freedom to worship you, and our freedom to do that which we ought to do, have all been bought at the price and sacrifice of many lives. Your Son died for our eternal life in heaven. So too, your children died protecting us here on earth. Help us be mindful this weekend and always of the sacrifices made by those in uniform for all our freedoms. Amen.

Expressions in Art, this past weekend was an example of yet another successful event here at OLQA. Thank you to John Meyerhoff, Pat Pineo and all those participating in the organizing committee this year. Well Done! Thank you to the artists and crafters whose work was displayed. We are a very talented parish! Of course no event here would be complete without the food that is so expertly handled by Sue Saulsbery and her very talented "kitchen crew". We are not only a parish, we are a family! Thank you all

If you are graduating Your OLQA Family would like to recognize you and your accomplishments. If you are graduating from High School, College (Associate's, Bachelor's, Master's or PhD.), Technical or Vocational School; please participate in the Baccalaureate Mass in your honor on June 11, 2017 during the 10:30 Liturgy. DON'T FORGET to call the office, 814-382-7252, to let us know you are attending so we can recognize you. This includes any graduates of programs since June 2016.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

"Now this is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ." This is a very intimate promise given to us by God. We are meant to be eternally bonded with God in a way that fulfills us beyond our imagining. As suffering, death, resurrection, and ascension bring Christ to full stature so too does our suffering and death bring us to where we ultimately need to be as well. We are already on this eternal journey. All that we come to see and know about God and our relationship with him on earth is just a prelude of things to come. Knowing our destiny gives us the inspiration to use the gifts and talents God has given in service of that eternal goal. Are we ready to use our gifts for this purpose?
