1:38 WOMEN'S CONFERENCE
MARCH 28, 2020

Winner! Dave Jacobs, #030, was the lucky winner of week #31 of our "300 Club" for $100. Congratulations, Dave!

Keeping a personal distance of 6 feet will not deter the Night at the Races. Committee members from fundraising for our parish. The festivities are scheduled for Saturday, May 2nd with doors opening at 6 PM. Dinner will be served soon after and the races begin at 7 PM. Tickets are $20 per person which makes you eligible for the $500 cash drawing. The Winner MUST be present. You can "own" and name your own horse for $10 and if your horse wins the race, you not only win the "purse", but an additional $50 as the owner. Ticket sales take place after each week-end mass. Please be as supportive as you have in the past.

Founded in 1882 with the purpose of financially helping widows and orphans through our Insurance program, in 2020 we have just made joining the Knights a whole lot easier and quicker. Your local Knights have three primary missions (Charity, Unity and Fraternity) with the span between Degrees to become a Knight sometimes taking several months. Now all three Degrees can be achieved in less than 45 minutes in a Church with family and friends in attendance. To take advantage of our new initiation, just contact Fr. Carter if you are a Catholic man over 18 years old. Insurance is optional, but if you are interested in learning more about what plan could fit your current situation just search K of C.Org
