Council Chatter:

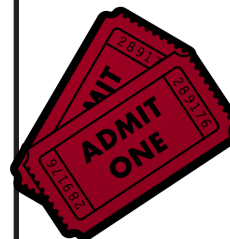

What happens if my parish raises more than its goal?

100 percent of the funds collected over a parish's diocesan goal are retained in the parish for its individual needs.

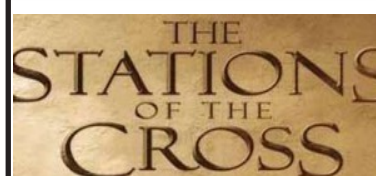

Vicki Leap, June Murray, Tim Bost, Joe Brancato, Dan Comer, Rich Gero, Rosann Bost, Jim McAnalley, Amanda Sovisky, Marian Hornfeck

How long can I wait before buying my ticket?

Only 100 tickets are available. Buy your tickets NOW. It only takes one ticket to win the $500 grand prize at the OLQA Night at the Races on May 2nd. Admission is $20 pp and $10 to purchase a race horse. Remember if your horse wins you not only win the "purse" but an additional $50 as the owner.

Tickets are on sale after all weekend masses until sold out.

Please take the time to update any of your information that may have recently changed. As a reminder, when a child in a family turns 26 years of age, his or her info will either be moved to their own OLQA account, or will be deleted from the data base if they have moved out of the area and joined a different Catholic Church. This policy helps us to keep our database current. Of course, your help in confirming this information is vital.

Thank you to all those who helped with the recent Lenten Lunch here at OLQA on Wednesday, March 4th. OLQA will once again be hosting the lunch on Wednesday, March 25th at noon. We are looking for volunteers to provide soup for that day. Please contact Claire Waldron if you are willing to bring soup. 814-382-3466.

KNIGHTS KORNER

Our Family of the Month recipients for March is Brian and Maria

Pilarcik from St. Philip's. Besides the fact that Maria is the former Religious Ed. Director, and Brian was at one time the youngest Parish Council member in its history, they were selected for doing their best to see that the Catholic Church will be vibrant in the 22nd Century. While Michael (10), Sammy (8), Gabriel (6), William (5), Ezekiel (2) and Maggie (9 months) attend every 7:30am weekday Mass, and the three oldest boys are "by the book" Altar Servers, just Michael is old enough to receive Communion!
