NEW ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

We are in the early phases of developing an adult education program on the Mass. Our goal is to have all our parishioners enter more fully into the Mystery of the Mass, as they encounter the Living God in the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, and in their lives. This program will be a continuation of the Morning of Reflection that we had last Fall, with Father Cyprian Constantine, OSB. We will be using two programs, one entitled, The Mass, and the other, The Eucharist, both written by the well-known professor, Bishop Robert Barron.

Details as to dates and times will be coming, soon. If you have questions about "what is happening at mass," or "why do we do that," this program is for you. We hope that all will participate, and help build not only a greater engagement in the Mystery of the Mass, but also a more Spiritual Encounter with our Lord

Jesus Christ in His Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Dear OLQA Parishioners,

Thank you for all of the prayers, food, cards, visits and support you have provided my family and me these past few weeks. A special thank you to Father David Carter, the members of ARS who came to say the Rosary at Tim's viewing and the volunteers who provided the lunch after his funeral Mass. Everything you did was so appreciated.

Sincerely,

The Kaider family
