WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

Grief is usually associated with death but it occurs with many events in our life which can cause a sense of deep loss, of life or life experiences.

We have had many people who have died this past year and it has affected each of us in a different way. Grief is a response to a loss, particularly to the loss of someone or something that has died of which a deep bond was formed. Grief is a strong emotion, maybe from the loss of a loved one or from a terminal illness or diagnosis they may have received and grief is the reaction to the loss. The most well known person for her understanding of grief was Elisabeth Kubler Ross M.D. (1926-2004) and her five stages of grief were:

- Denial-the bereaved having difficulty believing what has happened.
- Anger-questioning the fairness of the loss.
- Bargaining-wishing to make a deal for the one who was lost.
- Depression-the period when the bereaved get in touch with their sadness.
- Acceptance-feeling some resolution to their grief and an ability to go on with their life.

Grief is common and is a normal feeling that you may experience after the death of a loved one. But any major loss, such as job loss, loss of a home, loss of friendship, etc. can cause us grief. Symptoms of grief can be emotional, physical, or religious in nature. Usually holidays will trigger an emotional sense of loss and can be eased with counseling by a professional, either medical or religious.

Prayer for a loved one:

I commend you, my dear (name) to almighty God and entrust you to your creator. May you rest in the arms of the Lord who formed you from the dust of the earth. May holy Mary, the angels, and all the saints welcome you now that you have gone forth from this life. May Christ who was crucified for you, bring you to freedom and peace. May Christ who died for you, admit you into his garden of paradise. May Christ the true Shepherd, embrace you as one of his flock. May he forgive all of your sins and set you among those he has chosen. May you see your Redeemer face to face and enjoy the vision of God forever. Amen.

January 3, 2022

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I am grateful every day for the resources we have to help spread the Gospel message. Imagine how different our experience of the pandemic would be if we did not have the ability to Zoom or to livestream. It is changing the way we approach so many aspects of our lives.

At the heart of all that communicating is strong content. That's why the Diocese of Erie continues to invest in a team dedicated to providing you with thoughtful publications, social media posts, web resources and more, all designed to help me in my role as shepherd of the Diocese of Erie. Some of it comes right to your mailbox in the form of Faith, an engaging magazine filled with the stories and testimonies of Catholics striving to grow closer to Christ in northwest Pennsylvania. Despite the challenges of the pandemic, we have not missed a beat with this important resource, and in fact, have used it to provide much-needed encouragement and updates.

When I emphasize the need for strong communications, I am thinking first and foremost of you. My work is done in service to Christ and to you. I strive to take full advantage of every tool at our disposal to keep you informed about what is happening with the Catholic Church worldwide, across the United States, and here in northwest Pennsylvania. Do you know why the upcoming Synod on Synodality at the Vatican is important? Are you aware that the US bishops are collaborating on an effort to help American Catholics understand and embrace the church's teaching on the Eucharist over the next three years? And what's the latest on pastoral planning in our diocese?

This year we've reported on all this and more in Faith, in the weekly Diocese of ErieE-news, at www.ErieRCD.org and on our social media platforms. Thanks to your generous support, all of it remains available free of charge.

Please consider participating the 2022 Help Spread the Faith collection scheduled for the weekend of January 22nd – 23rd. It's one important way to fulfill Jesus' command to go forth and make disciples of all nations.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Lawrence T. Persico
