HELPING HANDS PRAYER:

In your image you have made us, O God, male and female you have made us, knowing that it is not good for us to be alone. Penetrate our hard hearts that we may bind ourselves to one another fulfilling the splendor of your vision for us. We ask this through Jesus, who is not ashamed to call us brothers and sisters, the high priest who sympathizes with our weakness and intercedes on our behalf, Christ Jesus, who is one with you and the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Child Protection and Creating Safe Environments

- Diocesan Code of Conduct: The Diocese of Erie is committed to protecting the children and youth who are entrusted to its care and to ensuring that those in ministry with our young people are in right relationship with the children/youth receiving services. To share in the ministry of Christ is a great privilege as well as a tremendous responsibility. The privilege is the joy of sharing in the mission of Jesus Himself. The responsibility is acting in a way that conforms to the attitude and actions of Christ. In this spirit, the diocese has issued a ministerial Code of Conduct. The code is included in the diocesan Policy for the Protection of Children. To read the Code of Conduct, go to: <https://www.eriecd.org/images/sections/childprotection/pdf/CURRENTPolicy.pdf>

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

HAIL MARY

The Hail Mary is probably the most popular prayer known by Catholics outside the Mass. It forms part of the Rosary, the Angelus, Night Prayer, and certain otherwise hopeless situations involving a football.

It took hundreds of years to write the Hail Mary. The first part came easy. It draws from the angel Gabriel’s annunciation to Mary that she would give birth to Jesus: “Hail, full of grace, the Lord is with you” (Luke 1:28). When Mary visited Elizabeth, pregnant with John the Baptist, Elizabeth greeted her with the phrase we use in the prayer, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb” (Luke 1:42). Over a period of centuries, Catholics combined these two greetings of Mary and made them our own. If Gabriel and Elizabeth could get Mary’s attention this way, maybe we could too. We strung these greetings together with our own prayer for Mary’s intercession. Part Scripture, part Tradition, the Hail Mary runs deep in Catholic spirituality.

Two popular prayer forms use the Hail Mary: the Rosary and the Angelus. In the Rosary, it serves as a mantra, a repetitive sequence of words, thoughts, and rhythms that draw the believer into a prayerful trance before the mysteries of our salvation. In the Angelus, it reminds the faithful three times a day of the Incarnation, the Word of God becoming flesh.

In liturgical prayer, the Hail Mary has never staked out territory in the Mass. The scripture quotations it borrows from Luke’s Gospel do occur at Mass as antiphons and responses on feasts of Mary, but we usually substitute a hymn to Mary in their place. However, among liturgical prayers, we find the Hail Mary at Night Prayer. The Liturgy of the Hours is the official Catholic prayer form marking the principal hours of the day: morning, daytime, evening, and night. The brief service that ends the day concludes with a prayer to Mary. The Church offers us several options here, but the most familiar of them is the Hail Mary, the last prayer of the day.

LE NOM DU PERE SOCIETY NEWS

The St. Hippolyte Le Nom du Pere Society met on Sept. 1, 2021. President Debbie Furry opened the meeting with a prayer, and there was a chance to pray for special intentions suggested by those parishioners in attendance. Secretary Kathy Young read the minutes from the May meeting, and the Treasurer's report was given.

It was decided at this meeting to adopt the new by-laws presented at the previous meeting. Those attending also decided to purchase gifts for those students in our parish who graduated from high school in June, and to provide funds to purchase the "Little Blue Books" and the "Little Black Books". These devotional books will help our parishioners in their journey through Advent and Lent.

Plans are in the works to continue to share lunch after Mass on Sundays when our Faith Formation students assist as lectors during Sunday Mass.

The most exciting news of the evening was that St. Hippolyte LNDP is planning to have an in person Reverse Raffle on Saturday, November 6, 2021.

The next meeting will be on October 6 at 7:00pm. All adult parishioners are encouraged to attend. This meeting will include a wine, cheese and cracker reception. Please join your fellow parishioners to see what happens at a LNDP meeting and enjoy some refreshments with us.

Parishioners attending the meeting included: Rita Bogardus, Nancy Buckley, Debbie Furry, Carol Graham, Carole Jones, Connie Molli, and Kathy Young.
