QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel
Adults – To what part of the harvest are you being sent? What are you being called to do for the Reign of God?

Youth – Jesus sent the disciples out into the world, but told them that it wouldn't be an easy job. How have you shared your faith with others this past week? What were the risks for you?

Children – How do you let others know about your faith?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER: In baptism, O God, you call us by name to make ourselves fully available to proclaim the good news of your kingdom. Give us the courage of apostles, and let the gospel set us free that wherever life takes us and with whomever we find ourselves, our first word may always be your gift of love and peace. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Please come to the LNDD meeting on July 6. It is a busy time of year for all of us, but our parish social organization isn't all about work. We always have refreshments and socializing. That means that you can get to know your fellow parishioners while enjoying yummy food! Our last meeting included peach tea and apple pie. The parishioners who attended last month's meeting had a few good ideas on improving our physical plant. A fresh coat of paint can make any room look better!

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

ORDINARY TIME WEEKDAYS

The Lectionary for Ordinary Time weekdays contains a meticulous series of readings. Each year begins with a nearly complete presentation of Mark's Gospel proclaimed over nine weeks. The remaining weeks divide nearly evenly between Matthew and Luke. These focus on the unique stories not found in Mark (Significant passages from John's Gospel are heard during the second half of Lent and throughout Easter Time.)

The First Readings spread over a two-year cycle. They present books of the Old and New Testaments in alternation. These are semi-continuous readings: The principal passages of each book are heard in sequence, but not the complete book.

Year One of the weekday lectionary cycle opens with the Letter to the Hebrews and then moves to the first part of the Book of Genesis. Excerpts from Sirach and Tobit follow. From the New Testament, Second Corinthians is proclaimed. Then a whole series of passages from the bible's historical books tell the record of salvation history. Several New Testament letters come next, followed by a collection of the Minor Prophets. Several weeks are next given to the Letter to the Romans, and the year concludes with Wisdom, Maccabees, and Daniel.

Year Two opens with the historical books concerning the kings of Israel. Then the weekday lectionary turns to a group of New Testament letters. Next, the historical books resume where they left off, and with them come the remaining major and Minor Prophets. More New Testament letters follow, and then some from the Old Testament's Wisdom Literature. The remaining New Testament letters come next, and the year closes with the Book of Revelation.

Those who heed this sequence at daily Mass or in private prayer will encounter the main passages of the entire bible every two years.
