QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – Who are the people living near you that you would find it most difficult to invite to a meal in your home? Or to invite to be part of your life?

Youth – God asks us to do for others without hope of repayment. This past week, what did you do for someone else for which you won't be repaid? Who are the people most in need of your generosity?

Children – Jesus tells us that we should treat everyone as a guest. Who do you tend to shun or not be nice to?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER: God of compassion, to the festive assembly of the new covenant You have invited the poor, the sinful and the forsaken. Let Your church always honor the presence of the Lord in the little, the lowly and the suffering, recognizing in them our brothers and sisters whom You welcome to Your table. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

WE ARE STILL IN NEED OF ADVERTISERS FOR OUR BULLETIN AND WE NEED YOUR HELP! Are you a business owner? Is a member of your family a business owner? Do you frequently support a local business? Would you like to support the parish with an advertisement? In order to continue to have our weekly bulletins provided to us free of charge, we need more advertisers! The cost for a single space advertisement is $8 per week and the cost of a double space advertisement is $16 per week. We need to have at least 8 weekly advertisements for the printing company to break even on the cost of providing us with our weekly bulletin. Our printing company has been taking a loss and we are in danger of losing this free service. Advertisers can contact Minuteman Press at 724-346-1105 for information.

THANK YOU from the family of Darren and Shannon (Mercier) Whitman for all the cards and prayers of love and support as well as the wonderful funeral dinner provided by Le Nom du Pere Society. All of you are a blessing during this difficult time!

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

LIVING OUR FAITH

“They devoted themselves to the Apostles teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and prayers.”

Acts 2:42

The Apostles represented all of God’s people, a fulfillment of the twelve tribes of Israel. We, the members of the Body of Christ, like the early believers are committed to follow the Apostles, the Pope and the Bishops. In this unity, we experience Christ in prayer and in the breaking of the bread. When we practice the precepts of the Church it helps us to lead a moral life and remain united with the church.

The ideal Christian community is open to the Holy Spirit. They have in the past shared everything in common, including prayer, meals, and possession. No one then went in need. Does that sound impossible? They committed themselves to building caring relationships of trust and respect for each other. They spend time praying together, perform works of mercy, and works of service to those in need. Intentional Christian communities are evangelizing by their example.

- ◆ How do you as an individual rate yourself as living your faith?
- ◆ Do you give to the less fortunate the possessions you have that you could share or do you keep them just in case someday you can use all the extra stuff that you have accumulated?
- ◆ How do we as a community of St. Hippolyte and Our Lady of Lourdes rate in our generosity to the less fortunate?
- ◆ Do we follow the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy?
