QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – In what ways does Jesus speak today, ways in which you can truly “listen to Him?”

Youth – The disciples had a very intense experience of Jesus on the mountain. Have you ever had a “mountain top” experience? What was it like for you?

Children – Name or draw a picture of a time you knew that Jesus was with you.

BETTER MEALS IN MADAGASCAR—In

Madagascar, half of all children are undernourished. That means 50% of kids won't grow to reach their full potential. But communities are changing this by focusing on improving health and nutrition. What role has food played in your life? How can you help those who lack access to enough nutritious food. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

REGISTER TODAY FOR 1:38 WOMEN, a Catholic Women's conference based on the theme of "BEE the ATTITUDE!" Enjoy a dynamic experience with women from around the Diocese of Erie and beyond! CHILD PROTECTION AND CREATING SAFE ENVIRONMENTS—February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month: Teen dating violence is a serious problem in the United States. One in three high school students experience either physical or sexual violence, or both, that is perpetrated by someone they are dating or going out with. One in ten high school students has been purposefully hit, slapped or physically hurt by a boyfriend or girlfriend. Teen dating violence can be physical, emotional or sexual. Teen dating violence can be prevented through empowering teens to lead healthy lives and establish healthy relationships. Healthy relationships consist of trust, honesty, respect, equality and compromise.

Visit <https://www.eriecd.org/childprotection/> to see what the diocese is doing to help maintain safe environments for children and youth.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

THE STATIONS OF THE CROSS

are a 14-step Catholic devotion commemorating Jesus' last days on earth as man. The 14 steps focus on His walk from being condemned to death until His crucifixion. In our parish we celebrate the Stations every Wednesday at 7:00 pm, alternating from church to church. This year we began on February 24th at Our Lady of Lourdes and continue on March 3rd at St. Hippolyte, March 10th at Our Lady of Lourdes, March 17th at St. Hippolyte, March 24th at Our Lady of Lourdes and March 31st at St. Hippolyte. Please join us in praying this wonderful tradition on Wednesday evenings. Of course, with the pandemic we cannot enjoy our traditional Soup and Bread meals, but it may be a good plan to serve soup and bread in your home for your dinner on Wednesday evenings. If you are unable to attend the Wednesday Stations, St. Hippolyte Church is open each weekday from 9:00am until 4:00pm and books are available there for your use to walk and pray the Stations. There are also many resources online for adults and children to pray the stations. What a wonderful way to pray together to teach your children about Jesus' last days on earth. There are many Stations of the Cross videos on YouTube which you and your children can use and enjoy every day. Also, there are Stations offered on the EWTN television network every day.

These 14 Stations represent the stages of Christ's passion and death.

1. Jesus is condemned to death. (Luke 23:20-25)
2. Jesus accepts the Cross. (1 Peter 2:24-25)
3. Jesus falls the first time. (Isaiah 53:4-5)
4. Jesus meets His mother. (Luke 2:34-35)
5. Simon of Cyrene carries the cross. (Mark 15:21)
6. Veronica wipes the face of Jesus. (Psalm 27:8-9)
7. Jesus falls the second time. (Psalm 118:11-13, 18)
8. Jesus meets the women of Jerusalem. (Luke 23:28)
9. Jesus falls for the third time. (Romans 8:35-37)
10. Jesus is stripped of His clothes. (John 19:23-24)
11. Jesus is nailed to the Cross. (Mark 15:24-28)
12. Jesus dies on the Cross. (John 19:28-30)
13. Jesus is taken down from the Cross. (Matthew 27:57-58)
14. Jesus is placed in the tomb. (John 19:41-42)

As we celebrate the Second Sunday of Lent, check in with yourself. How are you doing with your Lenten sacrifice? In what ways have you succeed and where is there room for growth?

Saint of the Week

SAINT KATHARINE DREXEL

"Katharine Drexel is an excellent example of that practical charity and generous solidarity with the less fortunate which has long been the distinguishing mark of American Catholics. May her example help young people in particular to appreciate that no greater treasure can be found in this world than in following Christ with an undivided heart and in using generously the gifts we have received."

JOURNEY TO THE FOOT OF THE CROSS: BISHOP RICKEN OFFERS 10 THINGS TO REMEMBER FOR LENT

Bishop David L. Ricken of Green Bay, Wisconsin, former chairman of the Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB), offers "10 Things to Remember for Lent":

---

1. Remember the formula. The Church does a good job capturing certain truths with easy-to-remember lists and formulas: 10 Commandments, 7 sacraments, 3 persons in the Trinity. For Lent, the Church gives us almost a slogan—Prayer, Fasting, and Almsgiving—as the three things we need to work on during the season.

2. It's a time of prayer. Lent is essentially an act of prayer spread out over 40 days. As we pray, we go on a journey, one that hopefully brings us closer to Christ and leaves us changed by the encounter with him.

3. It's a time to fast. With the fasts of Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, meatless Fridays, and our personal disciplines interspersed, Lent is the only time many Catholics these days actually fast. And maybe that's why it gets all the attention. "What are you giving up for Lent? Hot dogs? Beer? Jelly beans?" It's almost a game for some of us, but fasting is actually a form of penance, which helps us turn away from sin and toward Christ.

4. It's a time to work on discipline. The 40 days of Lent are also a good, set time to work on personal discipline in general. Instead of giving something up, it can be doing something positive. "I'm going to exercise more. I'm going to pray more. I'm going to be nicer to my family, friends, and coworkers."

5. It's about dying to yourself. The more serious side of Lenten discipline is that it's about more than self-control—it's about finding aspects of yourself that are less than Christ-like and letting them die. The suffering and death of Christ are foremost on our minds during Lent, and we join in these mysteries by suffering, dying with Christ and being resurrected in a purified form.

6. Don't do too much. It's tempting to make Lent some ambitious period of personal reinvention, but it's best to keep it simple and focused. There's a reason the Church works on these mysteries year after year. We spend our entire lives growing closer to God. Don't try to cram it all in one Lent. That's a recipe for failure.

7. Lent reminds us of our weakness. Of course, even when we set simple goals for ourselves during Lent, we still have trouble keeping them. When we fast, we realize we're all just one meal away from hunger. In both cases, Lent shows us our weakness. This can be painful, but recognizing how helpless we are makes us seek God's help with renewed urgency and sincerity.

8. Be patient with yourself. When we're confronted with our own weakness during Lent, the temptation is to get angry and frustrated. "What a bad person I am!" But that's the wrong lesson. God is calling us to be patient and to see ourselves as he does, with unconditional love.

9. Reach out in charity. As we experience weakness and suffering during Lent, we should be renewed in our compassion for those who are hungry, suffering, or otherwise in need. The third part of the Lenten formula is almsgiving. It's about more than throwing a few extra dollars in the collection plate; it's about reaching out to others and helping them without question as a way of sharing the experience of God's unconditional love.

10. Learn to love like Christ. Giving of ourselves in the midst of our suffering and self-denial brings us closer to loving like Christ, who suffered and poured himself out unconditionally on the Cross for all of us. Lent is a journey through the desert to the foot of the Cross on Good Friday, as we seek him out, ask his help, join in his suffering, and learn to love like him.
