QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Second Reading

Adults – Being “in Christ” means living as Christ teaches. What signs do you see in your life of generosity, forgiveness, hospitality, or any other of Jesus’ teachings?

Youth – The Gospel tells us even a little bit of faith is enough to make amazing things happen. How are you keeping your faith alive and growing? What good things happen in your life because of your faith?

Children – Jesus teaches us that our faith is powerful and with it, we can do great things. We can forgive, love, and share with others. Which of these do you do most often?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER: Do You see, O God of love, the violence that stalks us, the destruction that frightens us, the wrongdoing that surrounds us? Increase our faith that we may wait upon Your appointed time, and work at our appointed tasks, useless servants, doing our duty, at peace in the knowledge that You see and will save! We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

The Lay Faithful

The faithful who, having been incorporated into Christ through Baptism, are made part of the people of God, the Church. The laity participate in their own way in the priestly, prophetic, and kingly functions of Christ. Laity are distinguished from clergy (who have received Holy Orders) and those in consecrated life. (897)

— Catechism of the Catholic Church

The structure of the Catholic Church can be described in an order of Roles within the Faithful, with each having a special responsibility within the Church. Each role is important and necessary for the Church to function properly. The roles in the Catholic Church are: 1) Pope, 2) Bishops, 3) Priests and Deacons, 4) Consecrated Life, and 5) Lay People.

The laity are people who are not ordained or in a consecrated state of life. Some would say that this means the role of the laity is less important. But that is not the case at all. The laity are the people whose primary vocation (mission) is to bring Christ to the everyday world. It is the laity who bring Christ into schools, hospitals, factories, and offices.

Through their Baptism laypeople are called to share the priestly, prophetic, and kingly office of Christ. The laity share in the priesthood of Christ by living a holy life and by raising up their family life, their work, their studies, their relationships with friends, and even their leisure time to God in prayer. Participation in the sacraments, particularly the Eucharist, is also an important way they share in the priesthood of Christ. The laity share in the prophetic office of Christ by proclaiming Christ to others in every situation and every circumstance through their words and deeds. The laity share in the kingly office of Christ by working against immorality in society—by changing sinful institutions, speaking out against sinful situations, and by serving others, particularly those who are poor and suffering. The kingly office also calls laypeople to exercise leadership within the Church whenever appropriate.

— The Catholic Faith Handbook for Youth

As a layperson, when are you acting in a priestly way, growing in prayer and in your awareness of God's presence? When are you acting in a prophetic way, proclaiming Christ to others through your words and actions? When are you acting in a kingly way, serving others to ease the suffering and injustice in the world?
