QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – In the Gospel today, John tells us who Jesus is for him. If someone were to ask you, how would you answer this question: Who is Jesus for you?

Youth – How are you able to see through all the busyness, the distractions, and the din of today's world to really see Christ as He make Himself present today? Where do you see Him or experience His presence?

Children – If someone were to ask you, "Who is Jesus?" how would you answer?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER: Formed as Your Servant, O God, from the womb, Jesus is the Lamb Who takes away the sin of the world, the Light through Whom Your salvation reaches to the ends of the earth. On all who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus and called to be saints let the Spirit descend and remain, so that, filled with grace and peace, we may reveal the One Whom we testify to be the Son of God, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

FINDING OUR LOST SHEEP

The tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to him, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them he addressed this parable.

"What man among you having a hundred sheep and losing one of them would not leave the ninety-nine in the desert and go after the lost one until he finds it? And when he does find it, he sets it on his shoulders with great joy and, upon his arrival home, he calls together his friends and neighbors and says to them, 'Rejoice with me because I have found my lost sheep.' I tell you, in just the same way there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous people who have no need of repentance."

Luke 15: 1-7

The parable of the Lost Sheep gives us direction for going out and finding the missing people who have strayed from our midst. Do not be afraid to be human and embrace those who have been absent from our community. Time heals and they may only need an invitation from you, a faithful Catholic, to return to our community. We don't need to be judgmental or self-righteous and turn people off, but be honest and show them that our life is a gift from God and we need to show God our gratitude. We all need encouragement and we need to get up after we have fallen down, and get up again and again.

When someone returns we can all rejoice with God because we have all become one in our community of believers. The best reason for returning to the church is in the Eucharist and receiving the real presence of Christ every week. As verse 7 in the above scripture states, there will be more joy in heaven over one who repents than over the ninety-nine who have no need for repentance. When approaching people go with your gut — God speaks to us through our gut. God says come to my house and we can hang out. We have no need to judge others or the church, we have all made mistakes and God will forgive those who repent and return to him joyfully.

As the song says: Go make a difference. We can make a difference. We are the hands of Christ reaching out to those in need, the face of God for all to see.

Now, go and make a difference in the world!!!
