QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – In what ways do you experience being called by Jesus? What does He want you to do?

Youth – Andrew seemed to know immediately that he should follow Jesus. Do you have that same sense of confidence in your faith in Jesus? What helps? What makes it hard?

Children – What can you do this week to show that you are a follower of Jesus?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER: O God, You reveal the signs of Your presence among us in the church, in the liturgy and in our brothers and sisters. Let no word of Yours ever fall by the wayside or be rendered ineffective through our indifference or neglect. Rather, make us quick to recognize Your saving plan whenever we encounter it, and keep us ready always to serve as prophets and apostles of Your kingdom. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

NEXT WEEK OUR SPECIAL COLLECTION supports the Catholic Communication Campaign. This campaign connects people with Christ in the United States and in developing countries around the world through the internet, television, radio and print media. Fully 50% of the money collected remains here in the Diocese of Erie to fund local communications efforts. Your support helps spread the Gospel message! To learn more, visit www.usccb.org/cc

THE ETHICAL RECEPTION OF COVID-19 VACCINES — As various vaccines for COVID-19 are made available to the public, concerns about safety and efficacy — as well as the ethics of their research and development — challenge all to make informed choices. Bishop Lawrence Persico has issued a statement that provides information about the vaccines and a process of ethical decision-making consistent with Catholic values. The statement, which can be found at www.eriercd.org/news/News-releases.html, also includes links to several helpful Vatican and USCCB documents.

DIAL 814 FOR LOCAL CALLS IN THE 814 AREA CODE — The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has approved a new 582 area code for areas previously served by the 814 area code. Please dial the area code for local as well as long distance calls to 814 numbers. After April 3, 2021, calls made to 814 numbers without dialing the area code will not go through. You must update the following systems to use a 10-digit number rather than seven digits: life safety systems and medical monitoring devices, fire or burglar alarm and security systems or gates, PBXs, FAX machines, speed dialers, call forwarding settings and voicemail services. Also, please check websites, personal and business stationery and advertising materials, personal and pet ID tags and other similar items to ensure the area code is included. The price of a local call will not change.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

ORDINARY TIME

Ordinary Time, the longest season of the Church year, fills the weeks that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ (Universal Norms on Liturgical Year and the General Roman Calendar, 43). It's the no-particular-reason season. Christmas Time honors the birth of Christ. Easter Time rejoices in the Resurrection. Ordinary Time is devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects.

The number of weeks of Ordinary Time replaces the old counting of weeks "after Epiphany" and "after Pentecost." The old calendar suggested that Pentecost ran for six months. The new calendar gives Pentecost a day. Then we return to Ordinary Time.

At first glance, the principles of Ordinary Time seem basic enough. Start counting the weeks after Christmas Time. Break for Lent and Easter. Resume after Pentecost and keep counting until Advent. Basically, that's how it works. But we have a few quirks.

For example, there is no "First Sunday in Ordinary Time"; however, there is a first week. Usually Christmas Time ends on a Sunday with the Baptism of the Lord. The lectionary also calls it the First Sunday in Ordinary Time, but it is part of Christmas Time. (Some years the Baptism of the Lord falls on a Monday, but that's another story.) Ordinary Time gets underway on a weekday. When the next Sunday rolls around, we start week two.

On the Tuesday before Ash Wednesday, we see the last of Ordinary Time until after Pentecost. Even then, it emerges only on weekdays. Trinity Sunday always follows Pentecost Sunday, and the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord comes the next Sunday in the United States. (In countries where this solemnity is a holyday, it falls on a Thursday.) Therefore, when the numbered Sundays in Ordinary Time return in summer, we start out a little higher than where we left off.

Sometimes we skip one or two entire weeks of Ordinary Time during the Easter break. We want to close the Sundays of the year with Christ the King, one week before Advent. Christ the King always falls on the Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time. So, we determine the week number after Pentecost not based on where we left off before Lent, but by counting backwards from Christ the King. One or two weeks may disappear, but Ordinary Time still serves the complete mystery of Christ.

January 4, 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

"That you may tell your children and grandchildren." (Ex 10:2) With this opening line, Pope Francis authored his message for 2020's World Communications Day one year ago this month. It is amazing to think how relevant it became, given how little understanding we had at that time concerning the impact COVID-19 would have on the world.

There is no doubt we will tell those who come after us about this unusual and challenging year. But what is it we will share? Will we focus on the information overload, the fear, the separation and hardships? Or will we look back and see how the difficulties strengthened us, taught us to trust and to rely on God more fully? Will we tell them that we rediscovered our priorities and found new ways to encounter Christ?

Pope Francis went on to encourage us to focus on stories that build up rather than tear down; that help us find strength to move forward together. He suggested we look for a narrative that regards our world and its happenings with a tender gaze and that reveals the interweaving of the threads which connect us to one another.

We strive to make that easier with every piece of content we share through our Communications Office, including Faith magazine, www.eriecd.org, the weekly Diocese of Erie News, as well as our social media platforms. These tools proved their importance more than ever in this year during which we had to rely so heavily on technology.

Your contributions to the Help Spread the Faith campaign, scheduled to take place the weekend of Jan. 24, 2021, will help ensure we can continue to make these cost-free resources available to all parishioners throughout the diocese.

Please know of my gratitude for your support.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Lawrence T. Persico
