QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – Even as working disciples of Christ, we are given the gift of peace. How do you experience this gift, and how do you share it with others?

Youth – St. Paul tells us that we all have unique gifts for the good of others. What is special about you? How can you use those gifts to help others—friends, family, strangers?

Children – Jesus tells us that we need to forgive to have peace.

Name one way that you can forgive a friend or classmate.

HAM OR CHICKEN DINNER NEWS...This year's dinner is on Sunday, July 31! It's our 126th year and we hope it will be a grand success. This is one of the largest fund raisers for our parish of Saint Hippolyte and Our Lady of Lourdes and we need YOU to make the dinner a success for our parish. This year we want to involve as many parishioners as possible and so we will be using a sign-up poster which will be available after Mass so that you can sign up for the job of your choice. There are jobs for all ages! Anything from wrapping silverware, to serving mashed potatoes, helping with children's games, selling raffle tickets or fancy works, etc. There are outdoor and indoor jobs to be filled; sit down jobs or stand up jobs; jobs for young children and jobs for adults of all ages. Be sure to sign up early or members of the dinner committee will be calling you to help you select an appropriate position that fits your needs. Thank you for your help and we look forward to seeing a well-filled sign up poster over the next few weeks.

- Tickets for the 50-50 and Quilt/Afghan raffles are now available. Please pick up your envelope of tickets after Mass to help us save on the cost of mailing them to you. We're so excited to have the festival games available this year that we have two quilts to give away this year. Be sure to get your tickets on these beautiful quilts. And who doesn't need money? There will be four lucky winners in our 50-50 raffle so be sure to purchase your tickets while they are available.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS PENTECOST

On Pentecost, we celebrate the day on which the Holy Spirit came upon the disciples in a form resembling tongues of fire, empowering them to proclaim the message that Jesus is risen from the dead. According to Acts of the Apostles (1:13-14), Mary, the apostles, and other disciples had been huddled together in an upper room after the ascension of Jesus. But on this day they went forth from that room as new people, alive in the Spirit, speaking in tongues and winning over believers by the thousands.

A few special features mark the Mass of Pentecost Sunday. The options for the First Reading for Saturday's Vigil Mass, for example, are taken from the Old Testament. Throughout the Easter season, all the readings come from the New Testament — except, of course, the Responsorial Psalm. Saturday's First Reading foreshadows the coming of the Spirit. On Sunday, the First Reading comes from the Acts of the Apostles, and it tells the story of Pentecost. After the Second Reading, everyone sings or says the Pentecost Sequence, a special hymn that tells the meaning of this day.

If the priest uses Eucharistic Prayer I, he inserts a special phrase saying that this is the day "on which the Holy Spirit appeared to the Apostles in tongues of fire." The Mass concludes with a double "alleluia." The deacon or priest adds the words to his dismissal, and you answer, "Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia." This joyful acclamation concludes the Church's celebration of Easter.

The Paschal candle burns throughout the Pentecost Mass, as it does for the fifty days of Easter Time. After Mass, however it is moved from its place near the ambo to a position in the baptistry.

Saint Hippolyte Church Le Nom du Pere Society is organizing a trip to the Sight and Sound Theatre in Lancaster PA to see the live stage production of DAVID.

October 14-15, 2022

Master Poet. Fearless Warrior. Anointed King. From still waters to shadowed valleys, David's ascent to the throne is filled with towering giants, wild animals, and Philistine soldiers. After unprecedented victories lead to devastating failures, this passionate warrior will face the biggest battle of all: the one within himself.

Experience one of the most legendary Bible stories as it comes to life with spectacular special effects, massive sets, and live animals in this brand-new original stage production.

We plan to leave from Saint Hippolyte Church (Route 27 in Frenchtown) on Friday, October 14 at 1:00pm and will return sometime on Saturday evening, October 15. The estimated cost at this time is $175 for the bus and tickets to the show. In addition your cost for the hotel is approximately $95 per person (2 people per room) or $47.50 per person (4 people per room) for a Queen suite; OR $60 per person (3 people per room) for a King suite. Meals during the trip will be at your own expense. Free breakfast is available at the hotel.

Reservation deadline is July 15. A deposit of $175 must be paid no later than July 15 to secure your seat on the bus and at the theatre. Contact the Saint Hippolyte parish office if you would like to reserve your spot!
