QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – As you wrestle with today's Gospel, what signs do you see in your own life that you are "with God?"

Youth – Jesus tells us that being His disciple will be very hard. Of all the things that Jesus tells us about the way that we are to live our lives, what is the hardest thing for you to do? Why?

Children – How do you show that you are a follower of Jesus?

Pledged: $39,510 Received: $29,805

WORDS OF WISDOM...

When we focus on Jesus we don't have time to see the mistakes and faults of others.

Don't say God is silent when your Bible is closed.

HELPING HANDS PRAYER: From east and west, from north and south, O God of all nations and tongues, You gather a multitude at Your welcome table. Teach us how narrow the door by which we must enter, and how urgent the time for answering Your summons. May we be among those Jesus recognizes when we knock at the door of Your feast. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

REAL PRESENCE

Paul Turner

Catholics hold strongly their belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist. This presence happens “by the conversion of the bread and wine into Christ’s body and blood” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1375). This transformation takes place during the eucharistic prayer at every Mass.

Christ is present in other ways. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy from the Second Vatican Council says that Christ is present in the sacrifice of the Mass, in the priest, in the readings, and in the church. He is present “especially under the Eucharistic species” (7).

For this reason, when Catholics present themselves in the communion line, they hear the minister proclaim, “The Body of Christ” and “The Blood of Christ.” They answer “Amen” to each of these statements, affirming their belief in the real presence of Christ in every communion. In a similar way, to conclude the proclamation of the Gospel, the people hear “The gospel of the Lord,” and they address their words not to the priest or deacon who proclaimed the Gospel but to Christ, who is present in His word: “Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.”

Nonetheless, “the mode of Christ’s presence under the Eucharistic species is unique: (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1374). After Mass, the real presence of Christ remains in the consecrated bread stored in the tabernacle. There it is commonly called the Blessed Sacrament. Outside of Mass, a consecrated host may be set within a monstrance and reverently placed on the altar for the adoration of the faithful. This event is called exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

Christ is truly present in the consecrated elements whether we are receiving Him in holy communion or adoring Him in the Blessed Sacrament. He has come that His followers may have life, and have it more abundantly.

Paul Turner is pastor of St. Anthony Parish in Kansas City, Mo. A priest of the diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph, he holds a doctorate in sacred theology from Sant’ Anselmo in Rome.
