QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Adults – Using Jesus' parable as your starting point, describe in your own words how God will treat those who come to be part of the church, even those who come late.

Youth – This Gospel reminds us that God is always seeking us out and welcoming us into his generous love. Through whom has God reached out to you? Who is always encouraging you to say "yes" to God?

Children – How do you experience God being generous to you: through your family, friends, school, or parish?

HELPING HANDS PRAYER: To the last as to the first, O God, You are generous and more than just, for as high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are Your ways above our ways and Your thoughts above our thoughts. Open our hearts to the wisdom of Your Son, that, without concern for the cost of discipleship or the reward of our labors, we may grasp how incomparable the honor of working in Your vineyard from morning until night. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, Your Son, Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

CHILD PROTECTION AND CREATING SAFE ENVIRONMENTS—Diocesan Child Protection Policies:

The Diocese of Erie, along with all other dioceses in the United States, has policies and procedures in place to address the national problem of child abuse and to aid in maintaining safe environments. The three main components of the Policy for the Protection of Children are: screening of all employees and volunteers who work with minors, training of all youth, parents, employees and volunteers, and reporting all suspected child abuse. The diocese is committed to promptly reporting any suspected child abuse directly to ChildLine or law enforcement. The diocese requires ongoing screening and training of all personnel, paid or unpaid, who have regular contact with our children and youth under the age of 18. The diocese also requires yearly safe environment training of our children, youth and parents regarding touching-safety and safe environments. To read the policy and learn what the diocese requires for all personnel who work with children and youth in parishes/schools/agencies visit

WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

CATECHETICAL SUNDAY

Today is Catechetical Sunday and the theme for the year is “I Received from the Lord what I also Handed on to You”. This year our program will look different from other years. Usually on Catechetical Sunday we formally introduce and commission our catechists for their ministry. This year we are homeschooling until the pandemic allows us to go back to classroom teaching. So hopefully our catechists will agree to return to teaching our youth at that time. Catechetical Sunday has always been a way of introducing to our Parish the persons by virtue of their Baptism of handing on the faith and being a witness to the Gospel.

What does Catechetical mean? To echo or resound. It is the act of bringing the Church’s teaching to the world. So a Catechist is the person who teaches in the name of the Church.

How are Parents the Primary Catechist? Parents are truly the primary catechist of their children. When they bring their child for Baptism and plant the first seeds of faith that is being the primary educator. We as parents then encourage them to take an active role to pass on the faith to the next generation.

PRAYER FOR FAMILIES

Father of all families, You have called us to serve our children in truth and love. May we be faithful to this call rooted in Your word and open to the Gifts of the Holy Spirit. May we use these gifts, especially the gifts of Faith, Hope and Love, to serve You, Who are love and the source of all families. Let Your spirit enlighten our friends and strengthen our hearts that we can be a path of Christ’s love to our family. Through the intercession of Mary and Joseph we pray for the Church, whose mission is to build families and instruct our young people to follow our precious faith and to be a more faithful witness as Christ calls us to be. Amen.

How am I going to be a more faithful witness to my children and family during this pandemic?
