WHOLE COMMUNITY CATECHESIS

OUR LADY OF LOURDES

Paul Turner

On February 11, 1858, at the grotto of Massabielle in Lourdes, France, Bernadette Soubirous saw a lady dressed in blue and white, who called for repentance and for the construction of a chapel. Bernadette saw more visions of her for several months. Once, the lady directed Bernadette to dig into the earth, uncovering a spring of water. Later, she announced her identity in the local dialect: "I am the Immaculate Conception." By July the visions stopped, but the church built at the grotto became a place of pilgrimage, and Bernadette has been declared a saint.

Pope Pius IX had declared in December 1854 that Mary the mother of Jesus was "the Immaculate Conception" — just three years before the first apparition in Lourdes. According to this dogma, Catholics believe that Mary was conceived without original sin, that God had prepared her by a special miracle from the moment of her conception to become the mother of Jesus. Sinless throughout her life, Mary became a model and intercessor for Christians.

Pilgrimages to Lourdes grew especially popular after sick people reported miraculous cures. Visitors today may prayerfully bathe in the spring that arose during the period of the apparitions. Believers fill containers with this water for private devotion.

On the liturgical calendar, February 11 is an optional memorial, which means that a local community may choose whether or not to observe Our Lady of Lourdes at the daily Mass. The collect from the missal asks God that we may "rise up from our iniquities," which echoes the lady's call to repentance. It affirms that God is "protection in our weakness," which suggests that the sick can find help. And it calls Mary "the Immaculate Mother of God," a title that blends her proclamation to Bernadette with the faith of the church.

Paul Turner is a priest of the diocese of Kansas City-St. Joseph. He holds a doctorate in sacred theology from Sant' Anselmo in Rome. A LITANY TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN AND THE ROSARY will be prayed on Tuesday, February 11 at 6:00pm at Our Lady of Lourdes. All are welcome!

MAKE THIS LENT ABOUT WHAT YOU DO, NOT WHAT YOU DON'T DO! During the coming Lenten season, instead of depriving yourself of some type of food or some form of entertainment, join a small community for six weeks and participate in Lenten Longings, an opportunity to read Scripture and share your faith with some of your fellow parishioners. Small groups will meet for 90 minutes once a week. It's a great way to make Lent a more meaningful season as you prepare to celebrate the resurrection. Sign up sheets are posted on the bulletin board. If you would like to host and/or lead a new group, please contact Joyce Tarr at 814-671-1009.
