May 31, 2022, Feast of the Visitation

Dear SMS Families,

Happy Last Week of School!! I can't believe it's here already! Thank you all for being so gracious with me when we didn't have school on Friday, May 27, and for your prayers. Because of the instructional hours we've put in this year, we do NOT need to make that day up. God is good! All the time!

Today is the feast of the Visitation. Ask your child to say and do the motions for the Joyful Mysteries of the Rosary and remind them of the story: Mary, after just accepting the invitation to be the Mother of God, travels in haste to visit her cousin, Elizabeth. Elizabeth's baby, John, leaps for joy in her womb at the sound of Mary's greeting! (Luke 1:39-56) What plans God has in mind for us before we are even born!

Attached to this email, you'll see our updated Last Week of School 2021-2022 calendar. Please refer to it for the rest of the week. Check your child's backpack tonight for an invitation to our closing events on Thursday and Friday (bring everyone!) as well as what team they are on and which color they should wear for Thursday's Field Day. I also look forward to seeing our PreK and Kindergarten families tomorrow for their graduation!

If you are able, please send in veggies (carrots, celery, broccoli, etc.) and individual bags of chips (Walmart and Aldi both sell them in boxes of 18 bags). Thank you in advance!

On our last day of school, after the Awards Ceremony, all students will go to their classroom one last time for this school year and will be dismissed at noon from the front doors. For this special day, please wait for ALL of the students to be dismissed before taking your child.

It has truly been my honor to be your child's principal this year! They are so very loved! Gifts!

St. Michael, pray for us!

Many Blessings,

Emily Zgonc 🌸
