Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe A King Above All

Reading 1	2 Samuel 5:1-3 (David anointed king)
Reading 2	Colossians 1:12-20 (Christ is before and above all things)
Gospel Key	Luke 23:35-43 (The crucified king) Jesus said, "You will be hated by all because of my name. But not a hair of your head will perish. By your endurance you will gain your souls." (Luke 21:17-19)
Adults:	In what ways is Jesus the ruler of your life?
Children:	How can you show that you honor Jesus as the king of your life?

Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

On August 28th, I reflected in the bulletin on the teaching that the glory of God is the human being fully alive. It is very easy to forget this teaching and to forget that God takes great joy in our gifts, talents, abilities, and happiness.

Therefore, I would like for this bulletin reflection to be a reminder of that message from August. God desires for us to thrive. He is not in competition with us. He neither improves from our unique abilities nor is He diminished as a result of our moral depravity. Despite this, God desires for us to flourish in order that we may participate in His sheer joy, happiness, and peace. God offers Himself as a gratuitous act and not out of need or self-improvement (like we often do).

The glory of God is the human being fully alive - intellectually, socially, artistically, athletically, economically, nutritionally, physically, spiritually, politically, psychologically, etc.

Is there an aspect of your life in which God desires for you to be more fully alive?

Fr. Ben Daghir
