The Good Shepherd Collection

Next weekend, we will have our annual Good Shepherd Collection in our parish to assist with the needs of caring for our retired diocesan priests. This collection allows each of us to show our gratitude and support of those priests who have cared for us and our spiritual needs and faithfully served our parishes. There is a special need to assist them with the escalating health care costs and long-term care expenses. As more priests become eligible to retire from active ministry in the next few years, our Priest Retirement Plan must be adequately funded to cover their future needs. Please consider a gift to the annual Diocesan Good Shepherd Collection on the weekend of April 30 & May 1. Use the special envelope provided or any envelope and mark on it- "Good Shepherd Collection." The collection for Retired Religious in December does not benefit our Diocesan priests.

Gluten Free Hosts

There are people today whose diet requires them to be gluten free. We have gluten free hosts. If you need a gluten free host, and have not informed Fr. Siefer or Fr. Whiteford, you may do so by informing him prior to Mass. You cannot wait until you are about to receive the Eucharist to inform him. Those who need to receive a gluten free host and have informed the priest should come up the center aisle to receive communion. If you have a friend or member visiting who needs a gluten free host please let the priest be aware prior to Mass.

Feast of St. Catherine

Inspiring quotes from St. Catherine of Siena

St. Catherine of Siena (1347-1380) Feast Day: April 29th

For centuries, people have drawn inspiration from the words of St. Catherine of Siena, the 14th century Dominican tertiary (third order) and Doctor of the Church who worked tirelessly for its reform and to move the papacy back to the Vatican from Avignon. From hundreds of letters and prayers to her spiritual testament "The Dialogue" (composed of four treatises), her writings are classics and have been translated from Italian into many languages.

Perhaps her most famous quote is: "Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire."

From "The Dialogue:"

"Love transforms one into what one loves." Dialogue 60
"You are rewarded not according to your work or your time, but according to the measure of your love."

Dialogue 165

From her letters:

"God is more ready to pardon than we have been to sin." Letter T343

"Consider God's charity. Where else have we ever seen someone who has been offended voluntarily paying out his life for those who have offended him?" Letter T345
