4th Sunday of Easter Called to be Shepherds

Reading 1	Acts 4:8-12 (The Stone That Has Become the Cornerstone)
Reading 2	1 John 3:1-2 (Recognizing the Son)
Gospel	John 10:11-18 (The Good Shepherd)
Key	Jesus said, "I am the good shepherd". The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep." (John 10:11)
Adults:	Whom are you shepherding in your life right now, and who shepherds you?
Children:	Who has been like a shepherd to you by their example? For whom could you be a shepherd?

GOOD SHEPHERD COLLECTION

This weekend all parishes and missions in the Diocese of Erie are taking a special collection to support the needs of our retired Diocesan priests. This special collection will assist those dedicated priests who are elderly, seriously ill or incapacitated, and in need of supplementary assistance for expenses such as non-insured medical costs, nursing home and long-term care assistance. As the number of retired priests increases in the upcoming years the Priest Retirement Plan will need to be adequately funded to meet their future needs. Your generosity will make a difference in the lives of priests who have served faithfully and serve now as a "thank you" for their many years of faithful service. Help provide them the same love and generosity they provided for us for generations.

The Feast of St. Catherine, April 29

Catherine was born during the outbreak of the plague in Siena, Italy on March 24, 1347. She was the 25th child born to her parents. Catherine herself was a twin, but her sister did not survive infancy. As she grew into young adulthood, despite her religious nature, she did not choose to enter a convent, and instead, she joined the Third Order of St. Dominic, which allowed her to associate with a religious community while living at home. It was members of the Dominican sisters that taught her how to read. She lived quietly, isolated within her family home. However, something changed her when she was 21. She described the experience as a "mystical marriage to Christ." She says in her vision she was told to reenter public life and to help the poor and sick. She also began to travel, calling for reform of the Church and for people to confess and to love God. She became involved in politics and was key in working to keep city states loyal to the Pope. She, also, was instrumental in persuading the Pope in France to return to Rome. She is one of the most influential and popular saints in the Church.

April is Child Abuse Month

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month, and this month we pray for all those who have suffered abuse at the hands of those in whom trust was placed and gravely betrayed.

Thank You

A big "thank you" to the Friendship Fire Department for hosing down St. Catherine and St. Michael parking lots in preparation for Easter. Great job!
