Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

We often pray the "Our Father" numerous times throughout the day. Of course, we pray the "Our Father" at every Mass.

Notice the pronouns in this great prayer:
 Our, thy, thy, thy, us, our, us, our, we, us, us, us.

"Our Father, who art in Heaven, hallowed by thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen."

I don't see the pronouns - me, myself, or I.

Yet, if you are anything like me, you have moments of wanting things to be: about me, going my way, going in my favor, what I want, what I prefer, what's best for me, etc.

The "Our Father" prayer really puts us in our place. It does so by pulling us out of ourselves, out of our comfort zones. The "Our Father" demands that we direct our attention to God the Father and toward those around us.

Fr. Ben Daghir
