25th Sunday in Ordinary Time The Value of Honesty

Reading 1	Amos 8:4-7 (Against greed)
Reading 2	1 Timothy 2:1-8 (Conduct of men and women)
Gospel	Luke 16:1-13 or 16:10-13 (The dishonest steward)
Key	Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. (Luke 16:10)
Adults:	Can cheating and deception ever be justified?
Children:	If someone treats you unfairly, do you have the right to do the same to them?

Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

I attended a conference a few years ago on evangelization. I will never forget what the presenter said within the first few minutes. He stated, "If you really want to be a good evangelist, know the census data in your region. Know the statistics. Know everything you can that is objective. Never settle for your experience or for the experiences of those around you."

Now, the presenter did not mean that an evangelist should not consider peoples' experiences. He was simply stating that objective knowledge of a region must be studied and then paralleled with peoples' experiences (including one's own experience).

There are a few reasons why that presenter's statement is dead right. First, faith builds upon reason just as grace builds upon nature. Effective evangelization, therefore, is built upon reason and nature. That which is objective and encompasses something far beyond what one's limited worldview and life experiences can achieve is a best friend to an evangelist. Experiences are very helpful but our worldviews are limited. Therefore, data (such as census data concerning age, religious preferences, employment, ethnicity, etc.) help to build an evangelization approach upon something objective. An evangelist must study the data, listen intently to the experiences of the people, reflect on one's own experience and then effectively evangelize with a keen awareness of the culture.

-Fr. Ben Daghir

K of C Public Rosary at Showers Field in DuBois

The Knights of Columbus will be holding a public Rosary at Showers Field in DuBois on Sunday, October 9, at 1 p.m. The Rosary will be lead by Deacon Dan Satterlee. The intentions are for pro-life, since October is Pro-Life Month. In addition we will be praying for world peace and for those who have left the faith, that they will return and that all who currently practice the faith will persevere to the end, as well as your own private intentions. The Knights of Columbus 4th degree color corps will be on hand in dress uniform. Everyone is welcome and encouraged to attend and participate in this beautiful prayerful event. Please join us as we lift our minds and hearts in prayer to our God with the help of our Heavenly Mother.
