Children’s Liturgy of the Word

Children’s Liturgy of the Word (CLW) at both St. Catherine and St. Michael will be on break for the month of August. It will return Sept. 4 with fun new ways for our youngest parishioners to learn the Sunday gospel. CLW is newer at St. Michael as of this year and has been a great success. We thank all of our volunteers who teach at both churches and help so much with this important program.

Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

I was born and raised in St. Marys, Pennsylvania and have come to appreciate the history of my hometown. I remember hearing a story about a Benedictine priest who served in Saint Marys over thirty years ago. According to many people, this priest had a remarkable ability of connecting with the parishioners and a profound awareness of human nature.

The priest was once asked, "So, how would you describe the people in St. Marys, Pennsylvania?" The priest responded, "The people of St. Marys desire progress but not change."

I would like to reflect on this priest's insight with a unique Gospel encounter. Jesus said to Simon and Andrew along the shore, "Come, follow me. I will make you fishers of men". (Mark 1:17). Simon and Andrew were immediately placed at a crossroads: to be changed or not to be changed. One road led to new adventure and the other road led to the same old, same old.

The story is a brilliant passage because it captures something which undergirds the Christian life. The entire Christian life is built upon this basic truth: we have a Savior who desires to change us.

The promise "I will make you" implies change, new adventure, and a new way of seeing and thinking. Every one of us desires progress (it's deep within our American bones), but do we desire change like Christ? Even better, do we desire to be changed?

-Fr. Daghir
