Fr. Ben Daghir's Corner

I will have four bulletin articles during September, which I highly doubt any other priest will have throughout the world. In honor of Bilbo Baggins' birthday this month (September 22nd), I will use a sentence each week from the book "The Hobbit" and shed light on the spiritual truth that it contains. I must confess, "The Hobbit" is my favorite book and I have profited greatly from the spiritual treasures it contains.

The first paragraph of the fictional story "The Hobbit" states, "In a hole in the ground there lived a hobbit....it was a hobbit-hole, and that means comfort."

Many of us (and I mean many of us) live in a hobbit hole. This is a place that is comfortable, controllable, and predictable. This is a place that is stagnant and doesn't let anyone in and doesn't let anyone out (because change is bad for a hobbit).

Of course, Bilbo Baggins (and many of us) like to live in a "hobbit hole" because we are filled with fear. It's ultimately fear which forces Bilbo to remain in his hobbit hole. Ultimately, fear holds you and me back from trying new things, meeting new people, considering new opportunities, etc.

Although the hobbit hole approach to life appears to be safe, it lacks joy, adventure, and purpose.

Bilbo doesn't recognize it himself, but something deep within him desires much more than a hobbit hole. He just needs someone to pull it out of him but it's going to take time (how true this is in life).

ALPHA 2023

Wednesday, September 13, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Try Alpha! The Alpha Course will be offered again this fall. Alpha is a wonderful opportunity to journey through the foundational teachings of the Christian faith and form community with others. It allows us to discuss the big questions of our faith like, "Who is Jesus? How Can I Pray? How Can I Tell Others? Is There More to Life Than This?" Past guests on Alpha have consistently stated that their experience created a loving relationship with Jesus, strengthened their existing faith, created a newfound understanding of the Holy Spirit, helped them pray and read the Bible, introduced them to new friends, and motivated them to be active in their faith. Alpha is an 11-week course, where each night guests are provided a dinner, listen to a short video presentation, and participate in small group discussions. The course is free of charge and will be from 6:30-8:30 p.m. each week at the Foundry in Reynoldsville. Alpha is available for all parishioners, friends, and family of all faith backgrounds from 18 years old and up. To register or find out more, please visit the link on the parish website under the title "Alpha," or call the parish office. Please use this link or call St. Catherine Parish office to register. <https://tinyurl.com/DRCCAlpha23Signup>

Pipe Organ Concert at St. Catherine Sunday, September 17, at 2 p.m.

All are welcome to enjoy a concert to celebrate the most recent improvements to the historic Hook and Hasting organ at St. Catherine of Siena Church. Under the direction of Stephen Paul Toney, the concert will feature members of both the Queen of the World Church, St. Marys, and St. Catherine Church with sacred music and organ solos. Stephen has been restoring this magnificent organ, originally from Boston, Mass., for posterity for the past 14 years. It is the instrument he learned to play organ music, he said, and he has a special connection to this organ.

The most recent work done to this pipe organ was reinstalling the missing concussion bellow on the great division wind truck. He also restored the reeds on the organ which included the trumpet great division and coropean and oboe on the swell division. Most significantly, the work will bring the speech, or sound, of 1,737 pipes back to their original glory. There is no cost to attend. Please spread the word so many can attend.

PASTORAL PLANNING UPDATE

Since 2019, the churches of ABVM, Sykesville, St. Bernard, Falls Creek, St. Catherine, DuBois, St. Mary, Reynoldsville, and St. Michael, DuBois, have been involved in a pastoral planning process. Following the hiatus during the COVID-19 pandemic, we reconvened in late 2021 to continue the work. A Steering Committee was formed, by the respective pastors, consisting of three members from each of the five churches listed above. Subsequently, there were monthly meetings with our facilitator, Jennifer Zaffuto, an architect and professional pastoral planner from KTH Architects in DuBois, Pa.

On May 17, 2022, Ms. Zaffuto presented the Committee with the plan they agreed to, in which five recommendations were made to Bishop Persico. The five recommendations are 1] To have one pastor, a parochial vicar while retaining a priestly presence at DuBois Central Catholic School and Christ the King Manor; 2] Form a Regional Pastoral Council to guide our regional parishes; 3] Hire a Business Manager who will serve all five parishes; 4] Introduce a regional Mass, to be held at DuBois Central Catholic School; 5] Form regional programming focused on faith formation and fellowship, outreach, transportation, music ministry, and youth.

As a Council we then had a Zoom meeting with Bishop Persico on June 1, 2022, to discuss these recommendations. At that time, he announced to the members that he was appointing Msgr. Richard Siefer as pastor of the five churches along with Fr. Benjamin Daghir, Parochial Vicar, and Fr. Edward Walk as Senior Associate. At the same time, the planning group known as the Steering Committee was designated the Regional Pastoral Council by Bishop Persico.

In August 2022 the Regional Pastoral Council met for their first regularly scheduled meeting. Since then, they have met monthly. Demographic information, fiscal reports, priests' statistics, etc. have been shared and discussed. At the April 2023 meeting, Msgr. Edward Lohse, Vicar General, was in attendance to discuss the procedure for moving forward. It was concluded that we need a principal church and a secondary church with mission status temporarily.

As a result, following the August 17, 2023, meeting the Regional Pastoral Council recommends the following to Bishop Persico: The principal church is St. Catherine of Siena, DuBois, Pa. After much discussion, the Regional Pastoral Council members could not come to a consensus on the secondary church with mission status. The consensus of the Council is that Bishop Persico makes the selection of the secondary church with mission status* from Assumption of the BVM Church, Sykesville, Pa., St. Bernard Church, Falls Creek, Pa, St. Michael the Archangel Church, DuBois, Pa., or St. Mary Church, Reynoldsville, Pa. Once the mission church is decided the other three churches will become secondary churches without mission status. The Council also recommends a new name for the parish, They have provided the bishop with six names for his consideration: St. John Paul II, Holy Spirit, Christ the Redeemer, Divine Providence, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, and St. John XXIII.

*Secondary church with mission status means there will be one or two Masses on the weekend.

A secondary church means there are no Masses at all. However, all secondary churches will remain open for private prayer, a funeral, a wedding or a baptism.
