Local Churches' Pastoral Planning

At the invitation of Bishop Persico, members of the pastoral and finance councils of Assumption of BVM, St. Mary, St. Bernard, St. Catherine, and St. Michael convened on May 24 for a presentation concerning the challenges facing our parishes as we prepare for the parish-centered phase of long-range planning introduced throughout the Diocese by the Bishop. Councils discussed elements of the presentation at their individual meetings the following week. A joint meeting of councils from the five parishes is scheduled for Tuesday, June 29, at 6:30 p.m. in DuBois Central Catholic School cafeteria for further discussion about the planning process. A summary of that discussion along with more detailed information regarding the process will be made available to all parishioners following that meeting.

Deacon Ben's Corner

"What is it like being a deacon?"

Several parishioners have asked me, "What is it like being a deacon?" I think this is a great question. My answer is that the primary task of the deacon is to assist the priest with the Eucharist - especially in the distribution of Holy Communion. The Eucharist strikes at the core of being a deacon. It's a very powerful experience to be next to Msgr. Siefer as the bread and wine is turned into the body and blood of Christ. It's also a very remarkable experience to distribute communion, to be face to face with parishioners, and the realization that they are receiving Christ himself. There's really nothing more remarkable than this experience and it's often too easy to miss the mystery. Believe me - I often miss the mystery. I thank God quite often that I am a few feet away from Msgr. Siefer at the altar. I'm a normal, young guy - it's easy for me to get distracted. God's grace works in remarkable ways though - being a deacon has helped me to focus on the Eucharist, parishioners, scripture, and my own inner voice. Such is the power of grace. - Deacon Daghir

Theme-Based Homily Series in Month of July

Throughout the month of July - Msgr. Siefer, Fr. Whiteford, Deacon Dan, and Deacon Daghir will be presenting a theme-based homily series on "Who is Jesus and what does He want?" at both St. Catherine of Siena and St. Michael the Archangel Parishes. There are four weekend Masses in July and the homilies during these Masses will focus on the theme above which is posed as a question, "Who is Jesus and what does He want?" If you are interested in reading the Gospel readings in advance we have placed the Gospel verses here: July 4 (Mark 6: 1-6), July 11 (Mark 6: 7-13), July 18 (Mark 6: 30-34), and July 25 (John 6: 1-15).
